A. APPOINTMENTS

Faculty Appointments with tenure

BETTCHER, Talia Mae (BA, 1991, York University; PhD, 1991, University of California, Los Angeles), Professor (with tenure), School of Social, Political, and Historical Research, September 1, 2026. Professor Bettcher joins Waterloo as the Eddie Goldenberg Research Chair in Gender-Based Violence Prevention and Trans Community Resilience. Bettcher is an internationally recognized foundational leader in trans philosophy who has helped shape the field. At Waterloo, Bettcher will lead community-engaged research on gender-based and transphobic violence, working with community partners to develop new frameworks for understanding trans experiences and translate that knowledge into practical tools, policies, and interventions.

Probationary Term Appointments

JACKSON, Ben (BAFM, 2019, and MAcc, 2020, UWaterloo), Probationary Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream, School of Accounting and Finance, September 1, 2026, to June 30, 2029. Ben earned a Bachelor of Accounting and Financial Management and Master of Accounting from the University of Waterloo and holds the CPA designation. Since 2023, he has served as a sessional instructor at the School of Accounting and Finance, teaching courses including entrepreneurial finance, business strategy, performance management, and technology development. In his new role, Ben will contribute to advancing the school's teaching capabilities in strategy, management, and finance topics by leveraging his practical experience as a financial analyst to enable students to advance their understanding of real-world challenges.

LOWATER, Alexis (BAFM, 2018, and MAcc, 2018, UWaterloo), Probationary Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream, School of Accounting and Finance, September 1, 2026, to June 30, 2029. Alexis brings a strong combination of professional practice and teaching experience to her new role. A Chartered Professional Accountant, she began her career in public accounting, specializing in cross-border transactions and taxation with KPMG and Grant Thornton, before transitioning to academia. She has since taught financial reporting, taxation, assurance, and accounting practice as a sessional instructor at both the University of Waterloo and Wilfrid Laurier University. As a Waterloo BAFM and MAcc graduate, Alexis also brings a valuable understanding of SAF's programs and students. In her new role, Alexis will contribute to SAF's teaching strength in corporate management and reporting, and to the continued development of engaging, professionally relevant learning experiences for students.

MEHTA, Amit (BCom, 1998, and MMS, 2000, Mumbai University; MBA, 2003, Georgia State University), Probationary Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream, School of Accounting and Finance, September 1, 2026, to June 30, 2029. Amit has extensive teaching and industry experience in assurance and emerging technologies. Since 2018 as a professor at Conestoga College, and since 2021 as an adjunct faculty member at SAF, Amit has taught courses in internal and external audit, information systems, data analytics, financial statement analysis, and ethics. He also has nearly 15 years of experience as an audit and advisory professional, including as an audit director and as a chief audit executive. In his new role, Amit will strengthen SAF's teaching leadership in emerging technologies, a key strategic priority, as well as contribute to the advancement of SAF's new assurance specialization through teaching leadership and course design.

NIU, Chris (Xinyu) (BSc, 2011, University of Liverpool; MSc, 2012, Imperial College London; MSc, 2015, Nanyang Technological University), Probationary Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream, School of Accounting and Finance, September 1, 2026, to June 30, 2029. Chris brings valuable teaching and industry experience to this role, having contributed to curriculum design as an adjunct faculty member for several years. His background spans founder, operator, and early-stage investment roles, alongside institutional private-markets experience at Partners Group. A CFA and FRM charterholder and two-time CBV Institute Research Award recipient, Chris is well connected across Canada's venture ecosystem. In his new role, Chris will support the School's entrepreneurial finance curriculum, the Student Venture Fund, and teaching innovation.
