SEVEN DEADLY SINS OF P&T MANAGEMENT

…and some tactics for avoiding them

Discussion with

Bob Kerton, Adjunct Professor of Economics, Former: Chair of Economics, Previous Member of P&T Appeals Committees, Former Dean of Arts

Academic Leadership Program
2016 Orientation for New Chairs
Noon October 6, 2016

1. TIMIDITY

Case preparation: regular errors or omissions and how to avoid them.

2. NOISE IN THE SIGNAL

How to screw up while trying to be nice.

3. ACCIDENTS AND IMBALANCE IN OFFICIAL REPORTS

Zero out of 10 on the balance beam.

4. MISUSING THE WHISTLE

What can go wrong with the referee?

5. LEAKING OIL

Confidentiality concerns.

6. INSENSITIVITY

Appreciate the victory or the crisis.

7. MISSION MYOPIA

Is everything really in the policy?