

THE PROGRAM FOR THE EVENING

4:00 pm: Tour of The Evidence Room at the Royal Ontario Museum in Toronto

First presented in the Central Pavilion at the 15th International Architecture Exhibition of the 2016 Venice Biennale, The Evidence Room was created by a team from the University of Waterloo School of Architecture, including O'Donovan Director Anne Bordeleau, architecture professors Donald McKay and Robert Jan van Pelt, independent curator and editor Sascha Hastings, and students and consultants. The installation at the ROM was managed by Waterloo alumna Piper Bernbaum. It will be showing at the ROM until January 28, 2018.

Full team: Anna Beznogova, Bradley Paddock, Siobhan Allman, Anna Longrigg, Michael Nugent, Valeria Nuyanzina, Alexandru Vilcu, Quinn Greer, Carol Kaifosh, Louis-Charles Lasnier, Fysal Amirzada, Nicole Ratajczak, Jake Read, as well as Kim Adamek, Marco Chimienti, Taylor Davey and Ryan Pagliaro.

WHAT MAKES A SPACE A PLACE?

5:00 pm: UW Design-Build Project in the Front Plaza of the Gardiner Museum in Toronto

Over the past few months, a group of students worked on the activation of the front plaza of the Gardiner Museum. The group consisted of masters students Negar Behzad, Suhaib Bhatti, Golnaz Djamshidi, Alexandra Hucik, Carly Kandrack, Ali Mohebali, Cam Parkin, Fotini Pitoglou, Danielle Rosen, Pavel Tsolov, and Anqi Zhang. The project was coordinated by Waterloo Architecture graduate and partner at PARTISANS Architects Jonathan Friedman.

6:00 pm: Panel Discussion at the Gardiner Museum

Waterloo student Pavel Tsolov, Waterloo graduates Jonathan Friedman and Victoria Beltrano as well as Waterloo faculty member Adrian Blackwell will come together in a panel discussion. They will address the project specifically and the question of public space more broadly. The conversation will be moderated by Anne Bordeleau.

7:00 pm: at the Gardiner's Front Plaza

Enjoy the public space, some conversation, food and drinks!

If you would like to attend the panel discussion and join for some conversation, food and drinks at the Gardiner Museum, please register on this link:
