

1:30PM-4:15PM EDT

June 3 2020

COHOUSING SYMPOSIUM

Exploring the intersection of affordable housing, co-ownership, diversity + inclusion, aging-in place, and architecture in this innovative and untapped housing model.

ZOOM LINK: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/85400105403>

1:30 PM

JOHN MCMINN

“Community Responsive Cohousing”

With strong skills in participatory and cooperative design, John will speak about the cohousing design process by unpacking a selection of projects he is working on.

2:00 PM

GRACE KIM

“Cohousing: staying socially connected in a time of physical distancing”

In her talk, Grace will explore the potential of cohousing to create happier more resilient communities.

2:30 PM

CRYSTAL
BYRD FARMER

“Building More Inclusive Communities”

Crystal will bring her expertise and insights as an activist and organizer to her talk as she speaks to how cohousing can become more inclusive.

3:00 PM

ADRIAN BLACKWELL

“Towards an Architecture of Relations”

Adrian will explore our relationship with ownership, property, housing, and land. He will provide insight into how cohousing can challenge these assumptions.

