Readings on the Future Life of Rural Newfoundland

instructor: Rick Andrighetti

student: Renee Kuehnle

1119 685-001 H 4375

course weight: ½ credit

The purpose of this course is to provide the student with knowledge and insight into the economic, social and cultural issues surrounding the future survival of rural Newfoundland communities.

The student will read 10 books, one to be read each week. Weekly reading journal entries will be completed and submitted once per month. These entries will include notes on the readings with significant quotations, as well as a written response to the questions distilled from the readings. Bi-weekly meetings will be scheduled to discuss the reading material and to monitor progress.

Course requirements

Submission of weekly journal entries and 10 essays of approximately 500 words in length.

Final completion date: August 12.
