

OAA Award- Equity, Diversity & Inclusion and/or Truth and Reconciliation

Program: Engineering→Architecture

Enrollment year: Any undergraduate year

Award description:

The OAA provides one annual scholarship in the amount of $2500 to be awarded to one individual student in any year of the undergraduate program to recognize exceptional leadership through design excellence combined with exemplary approaches to projects and/or assignments as they relate to Equity, Diversity, & Inclusion and/or Truth and Reconciliation.

Value: $2500

Eligibility & selection criteria:

The scholarship this year focuses on students who have demonstrated design excellence involving exemplary approaches to projects and/or assignments as they relate to Equity, Diversity, & Inclusion and/or Truth and Reconciliation.

Application/nomination process type: Project or Essay Submission including how this project assignment relates to Equity, Diversity, & Inclusion and/or Truth and Reconciliation.

Term deadline: Spring

Application deadline: April 30

Application details:

Project Submission to archundergradoffice@uwaterloo.ca

Additional Comments:

Panel size and format is open to students, a written statement about how your work addresses the climate crisis would be beneficial to include.

Contact: archundergradoffice@uwaterloo.ca