

NEXT CITIES SYMPOSIUM

NEXT-GENERATION URBAN ENVIRONMENTS

University of Waterloo School of Architecture, Lawrence Cummings Lecture Hall
Thursday March 9, 2017 | 9:30am - 7:30pm

Keynote Speaker 6:00pm – 7:30pm

STEPHEN GRAY
Harvard University Graduate School of Design

Sponsored by Arriscraft

9:30am

OPENING REMARKS

Waterloo Architecture Director Anne Bordeleau
3A Studio Coordinators John McMinn & Rolf Seifert

1:30pm

ROB CADEAU & ADAM FELDMAN
architects Alliance | Mid-rise housing in Toronto

9:45am

MATTHEW LAWSON

Common Form: Increasing urban residential density

2:15pm

ALISON JANES
LGA Architectural Partners | Rethink, Rebuild,
Renew: Alexandra Park and Madison Avenue

10:15am

DINA TANZ-DRABINIA

A Home for Urban Families: An approach to housing in downtown Toronto

3:00pm

MICHAEL LECKMAN
Diamond Schmitt Architects | Learning from colleges: elements of the future mid-rise city

10:45am

STEPHEN WENZEL

Cycle City: generating a cycling culture in Toronto

3:45pm

MARC RYAN
PUBLIC WORK | Landscape Under Pressure

11:15am

SONIA YUAN

Bicycle Factory: a post-Fordist urban intervention

6:00pm

Keynote speaker:
STEPHEN GRAY
Harvard GSD

Presented by Waterloo Architecture's Urban Building Design Studio
John McMinn, Rolf Seifert, Megan Cassidy, Sandrina Dumitrascu, Jonathan Tyrrell, Delnaz Yekrangian

The event is open to all graduate and undergraduate students and the general public, free of charge.

image: Merchants' Wharf, Bayside Toronto, ODA New York | image rendering: by-encore