

University of Waterloo
Faculty of Engineering
School of Architecture

Reading Course Contract

Arch 685: Readings/Seminar in Architecture

Course Title:

1121-685-002 #8134

Social, Economic and Environmental Contexts of Indigenous Cultural Hybridization

Course Description:

This paper aims to understand how Indigenous individuals, communities and nations are hybridizing their livelihoods in face of changing social, economic and environmental conditions. The course will consist of completing the following reading material and writing a 2500 word essay.

Social:

Decolonizing Architecture
Pauloosee Nakasuk
Kananginak Pootogook

Economic / Industrial:

Indigenous land rights, entrepreneurship, and economic development in Canada: "Opting-in" to the global economy, Robert B. Anderson, Leo Paul Dana, Teresa E. Dana

Corporate/indigenous partnerships in economic development: The first nations in Canada, Robert B. Anderson

Sharing Canada's Prosperity – A Hand Up, Not a Handout: Special Study on the involvement of Aboriginal communities and businesses in economic development activities in Canada

Environmental:

The Architecture of Glenn Murcutt, Glenn Murcutt, Maryam Gusheh

Bare Poles: Building Design for High Latitudes, Harold Strub