sarah gunawan

Sarah Gunawan holds a Master of Architecture from the University of Waterloo where she has also served as an Adjunct Lecturer and Studio Instructor. She is currently the Revner-Banham Fellow at the University of Buffalo School of Architecture and Planning where her research and teaching reposition architecture as an environmental prosthetic for aging bodies. Her work is published in Lunch, The Expanded Environment, and The Site Magazine. She has presented at conferences in Toronto, Cambridge, and Florence on issues ranging from the integration of synanthropic animals in suburban communities to the dual meaning of representation as action and decision. Previously, she has worked for architectural practices in Canada, the U.S., and Europe including Lateral Office (Toronto), KVA Matx (Boston), and Taktyk Landscape Urbanism (Brussels).
