RED CHINA BLUES:
Paul Martin, Canadian Foreign Policy, and the China Problem, 1950-66

Thursday, November 29, 2012
3:30 - 5:00 pm
HH 117 MacKirdy Reading Rm

Greg Donaghy, Senior Historian at the Dept. of Foreign Affairs in Ottawa, is General Editor of Documents on Canadian External Relations and editor of six volumes in this distinguished series. He has edited or co-edited another eight collections of scholarly essays on Canadian history and diplomacy. These include, most recently, Mission Paris: Les ambassadeurs du Canada en France et le triangle Ottawa-Québec-Paris (with Stéphane Roussel, Hurtubise, 2012). He is currently working on a biography of Paul Martin Sr.