

Fall Newsletter

AHS 2018

SHANTZ FAMILY FARM

The weather didn't stop this fall festive event from being a semester highlight! Students headed out to Shantz Family Farm where they could enjoy a day full of pumpkin picking, a wonderful candid fall photoshoot, and a free meal! Not to mention, AHSSIES all got to bring home a couple gourds to spruce up their home decor.

AHSSIE HOP

You know what's better than good food? Good food that is cheap. And that's exactly what 40+ AHS students got to experience during the annual AHSSIE hop. This year, AHSSIES hopped from the Pub on King to the Huether Hotel and finally Stark & Perri, where they ate everything from nachos to spinach dip.

PINTS AND PROFS

It's all in the name; students got to hang out with their favourite profs and mingle with fellow AHSSIES at Pint & Pops with Profs. All of this over some delicious finger food, courtesy of AHSUM, what's not to love?

BOARD GAME CAFE

AHS students had the chance to drop in and play board games in the fishbowl between classes. The cafe provided students with a chill afternoon filled with snacks, refreshments and some killer board games. With all things considered, the board games left AHSSIES feeling anything but bored.

INVOLVEMENT FAIR

This year, AHSSIES had the opportunity to learn more about what is happening within the AHS community and ways to get involved. The AHS expansion foyer was transformed into a networking hub with booths featuring projects, programs and initiatives geared towards AHS students. The involvement fair also featured a program sweater pop up shop, which sold out in record time.

DE-STRESS WEEK

Finals season can be tough, so this year AHSUM put together a de-stress week to help alleviate any stress students were facing. From an animal farm to a movie night and yoga to board games, the week consisted of plenty of fun, stress-free events for AHS students to take part in.

END OF TERM

The slumber party theme of this year's EOT bash had AHSSIES coming out in the comfiest of PJs to enjoy the free food, music and a good dance. This Bomber event was a perfect end to the semester and break to kick us off into exam season!

