SECTION 1: Accommodation Request Process Overview – Creed/Religion

This form is used for you (the student named above) to request housing accommodations on the basis of Creed, under the Ontario Human Rights Code (the "Code"). Section 1 of the Code provides that every person has a right to equal treatment with respect to services, goods and facilities, without discrimination because of creed, among other grounds. Under the Code, religious beliefs and practices are included under creed. The University of Waterloo will use this information to assess your request and determine what (if any) housing accommodations are required. Specifically, we are seeking to understand how your Creed/Religious-based beliefs impact your participation in on-campus housing, and/or interfere with housing processes (e.g., room assignment decisions). Reasonable accommodations are individualized and as such, accommodation eligibility may vary from individual to individual, even among those with the "same" Creed/Religion. This form, and any additional information about the nature of your request, will be held in confidence and secured in a confidential manner in AccessAbility Services (a department that supports housing with assessing accommodation requests). We will inform you of the outcome of your accommodation request. Final room assignments are determined by Campus Housing, Renison, St. Jerome's, and United according to the accommodation requirements, in conjunction with an appraisal of the residence options available to accommodate the need. Please note that submission of this Accommodation Request Form to Accessible Housing does not guarantee a spot in residence.

SECTION 2: Declaration of Requester (required)

Please explain below (or in an attached letter) why you are seeking a creed-based accommodation to student housing processes, such as for room assignment decision(s).

How does your creed-based belief(s) create barriers in your current or anticipated housing assignment and are there specific room types or environments needed to remove this barrier?

Please ensure you provide sufficient information on your creed's requirements, ensuring they are connected to the reason you are requesting an accommodation. You are not required to provide supporting information published by leaders within your creed/religion, but may choose to do so.

SECTION 4: Attestation and Signature of Student

By signing below, I understand that on-campus residences are communal living environments. Most students share rooms or amenities. While the University will work to remove barriers based on creed-based needs, availability of private or suite-style spaces may be limited.

I am attesting to the information provided in (or attached to) this form to be true and sincerely held. By signing below, I give consent to the University of Waterloo's AccessAbility Services to hold/store this form, and for Campus Housing, United, Renison, and St. Jerome's to use the information for the purposes of facilitating the accommodations process.
