Using Coping Thoughts

Adapted from The Dialectical Behaviour Therapy Skills Workbook by David McKay

	Upsetting Situation	Coping Thoughts
Example 1	I really can't stand my roommate.	It is only temporary. She is leaving at the end of term for co-op. I don't see her much at all anyways.
Example 2	My girlfriend broke up with me.	I have been through other break-ups before or This is my first break-up and I will learn how to handle it. It sucks but I know I will get through this. I don't want to be with someone who does not want to be with me. What I am feeling is temporary. I deserve better.
Example 3	I don't like my prof.	This class is only 12 weeks. I only have to do one class at a time. I can just focus on the subject and not on the prof. Maybe instead of focusing on what I don't like, I can look for what is good about him and the course.

Relaxation Strategy: Imagery

Imagery for Creating a Safe Place

Allow yourself to be in a comfortable position, either lying down or sitting up. Remember that if you feel afraid at any time, just open your eyes and ground yourself in today. You are safe and you are in control today.

Begin to take a couple of long, deep breaths all the way down into your diaphragm. [Inhale.]

Hold it, and as you exhale, let go of the tension. [Exhale] Letting go.... Take another deep breath all the way in. [Inhale.] Allow all the tension to move into your lungs, and then let it go, [Exhale.] just begin to let go.... And if you're still feeling tense, repeat that process a few times as you begin to let go, begin to relax....

Create a silent and healing space around you.... Focus only on your quiet breathing and the sound of my voice. . . allow yourself to begin to let go, to create a healing time, a time of peace and safety.... Relax your body, relax your mind, focus only on your breathing and the sound of my voice and letting go. Each breath allows you to become more and more relaxed.

You find yourself in a safe place outdoors. Perhaps it's not a place you've ever seen before except in the beauty of your own mind. You see a place outdoors that is beautifully safe....

Allow the images to come.... For in this place of safety, only you are allowed, no one can come without your invitation. In this place of safety, you are always at peace.... Allow the images to come....

Notice the color of the sky at your favorite time of day. And in this place, at this most perfect time of day, at the season and the temperature that you like on your skin, allow your senses to become more and more alive. Look around at the surroundings and allow yourself to see

Each time you come to your safe place, you may develop it and allow it to become more and more beautiful. Allow yourself to see what is here today....

Notice the color of the trees or flowers or grass, or perhaps sand or water. Let the colors and textures come alive for you in this beautiful and safe place.... Listen to the sounds of safety....

Perhaps you hear birds or splashing or the sound of wind in the trees or the grass.... Allow yourself to create a place of safety and peace that is always yours, always safe....

As you breathe in, notice the smells...perhaps salty air, or the sweet smell of a flower.... Breathe in the smells of your safe place.

Let yourself bask in the safety and the peace.... Allow yourself to walk around, to be in this place, to notice more and more, to create more and more in this place....

Now allow yourself to continue walking around your safe place.... You find a place for a healing garden, a place that is just for your healing. You can plant anything you would like.... You can plant wishes and dreams for the future. You can plant seeds of your healing. And you can weed out what you want to be finished with. Take some time to work with your garden now. [Long pause.]

And now, find your favorite place in all of safety. Walk around until you find just the right place.

[Long pause.] Sit down, and get comfortable.... Breathe in the safety and the peace. Breathe out the fear.... And just be in this place as you breathe and heal.... I will count from one to five.

When I reach the number five, your eyes will open. And you will be awake and alert, and feeling safe and at peace. One.... Two.... Three. Take a deep breath.... Four.... and five.
