WE AIM FOR A SAFE(R) SPACE

Going into this workshop, the intention is to create as safe a space as possible.

A safe space means different things for everyone, but we'll do our best! Let's keep 3 things in mind:

- Choice
- Respect
- Care

3. ABOUT

3. ABOUT

- An open-ended space for people to gain understanding of your professional life
- Formatting can vary:
 - Small, concise paragraphs → story approach
 - Numbered list → highlights outlining achievements, values, skills, and experiences
 - Hybrid paragraph-bullet combination
- Use descriptive words and action verbs

ANY QUESTIONS?

4. EXPERIENCE

- Like a resume experience section
 - Resume should contain detailed descriptions of an experience that are applicable to the position
 - LinkedIn doesn't require as much detail, but you can list more experiences
- Include work and volunteer experiences
 - You receive 12 times more views when you include descriptions of your work experiences.
 - You receive 6 times more views when sharing volunteer experiences and shows how you are a good fit!
- Link companies & skills, request recommendations, and endorse other
 - You can link your skills to a particular experience
- Include Projects
 - Mention project and the result but leave the gaps out so that they want to connect with you and start a conversation.
- Provide enough information to pique interest and start a conversation

ADD EXAMPLES OF YOUR WORK

- Add rich media
 - Photos, videos, links, presentations, documents, tweets, podcasts
- These additions make your professional story appealing and add a social component to your profile

CONNECTING WITH PEOPLE

WHO SHOULD I CONNECT WITH?

- Anyone you would like to add to your network!
- Alumni
- Co-workers
- People in the same industry as you
- People in the industry you aspire to be in
- There is no limit!

HOW TO CONNECT WITH PEOPLE

What is more compelling?

“Hi, I’d like to be added to your professional network on LinkedIn.”

“Hi, I’m looking for a job in marketing and sales. I would enjoy to connect with you to see if I might be the right person for your team.”

“Hi _____, I am passionate about helping promote equity and inclusivity, and I know your department at the University of Waterloo is a global leader in this arena. I would be interested to learn from you and get some advice on how I can make an impact in my career.”

“Hi _____, we met at the Women in Engineering conference! I enjoyed the conversation we had and would love to connect!”

3 SIMPLE STEPS

HOW do you know them

- What did you talk about?
- Where did you meet?

WHY you want to connect

- Interested in learning more about their experiences
- Build your network

CALL to action

- Do you want to meet me?
- Do you just want to connect?

THE ALUMNI SEARCH & GROUPS

a powerful tool to jumpstart your networking

The background features a black field with several thick, vibrant lines in yellow, lime green, cyan, and pink. These lines form a complex, abstract geometric pattern that frames the central text. The yellow lines are at the top and left. The green line runs vertically on the left and diagonally across the bottom right. The cyan line runs horizontally across the bottom. The pink line runs vertically on the right and curves at the bottom right.

DEALING WITH HARASSMENT

WHAT IS CONSIDERED HARASSMENT?

When to block?

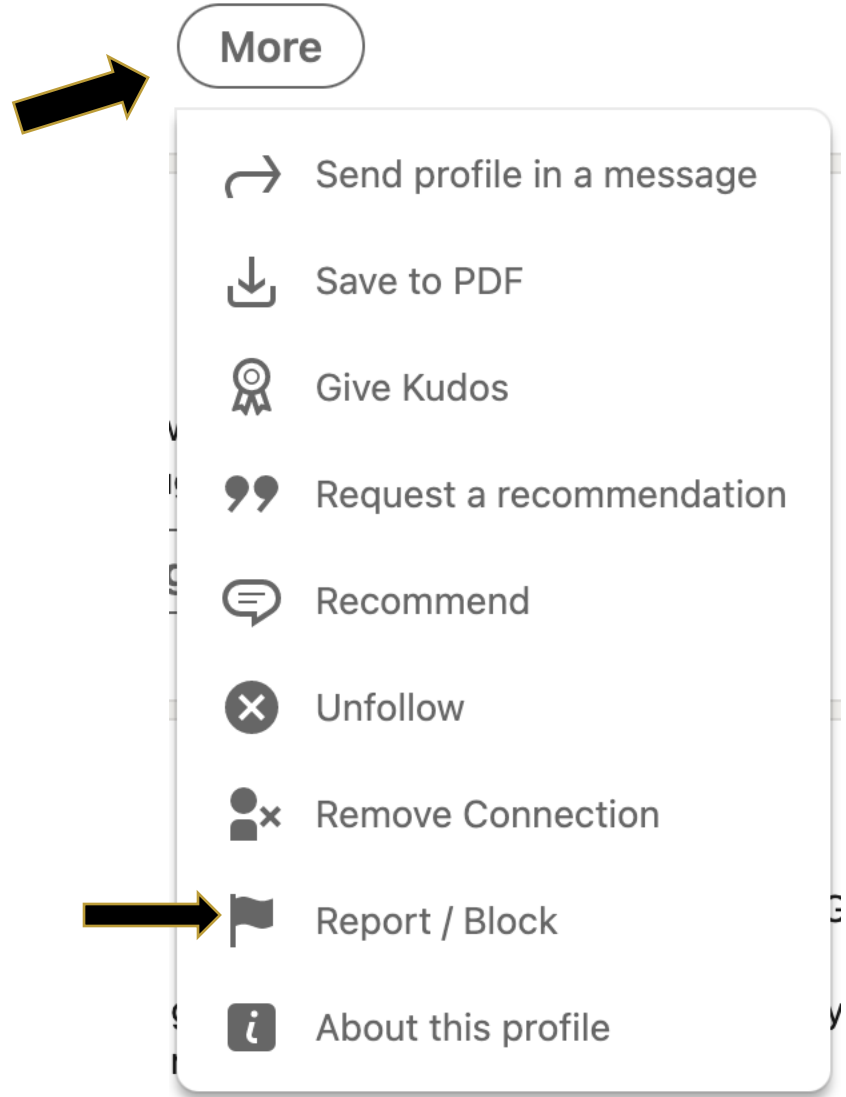

HARASSMENT REFERS TO...

Harassment refers to unwanted conduct/behaviour that results in physical, emotional, and/or psychological harm. It can be verbal (spoken or typed), visual, or physical. Harassment can be based on race, age, religion, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity/gender expression, or of a personal nature. Some examples of harassment include, but are not limited to:

- Making sexually suggestive comments
- Unjustifiably monitoring everything that is being done
- Exclusion from group activities or assignments
- Unwanted physical touching/contact
- Offensive, degrading, or derogatory jokes and comments
- Offensive graffiti, cartoons, or pictures
- Racial or ethnic slurs
- Spreading rumors
- Questioning someone's disability, accommodation needs, or treatment
- Unwelcomed comments about a person's religion and/or religious garments

HOW TO BLOCK SOMEONE ON LINKED IN

1. Go to the profile page of the person you wish to block
2. Select the “More” button in their title box
3. Select “Report / Block” from the drop-down menu
4. In the pop-up window, select “Block (their name will appear here)”,
5. Confirm by clicking “Block”

ANY QUESTIONS?

Let's discuss!

YOUR NEXT STEPS

- Update preferences, especially if you are looking for employment
- Update job experience – include descriptions
- Request introductions and start making connections
- Investigate the alumni search & join some groups
- Do your research
- Be critical of the keyword you are using
