

THE HOLOCAUST AS HISTORY AND WARNING

TIMOTHY SNYDER

UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO
MODERN LANGUAGES | THEATRE OF THE ARTS

PUBLIC LECTURE
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2017 | 7pm

FREE ADMISSION & ALL ARE WELCOME

TIMOTHY SNYDER believes that we have misunderstood the Holocaust and the essential lessons it should have taught us. The world of the early 21st century resembles the world of the early 20th more than we realize. If we do not understand the lessons of the Holocaust, an unprecedented crime could become a precedent for the future.

TIMOTHY SNYDER is the Housum Professor of History at Yale University and a member of the Committee on Conscience of the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum. He is the author of five award-winning works of history, including 'Bloodlands: Europe Between Hitler and Stalin', which received the Literature Award of the American Academy of Arts and Letters.
