

Susan Thorne, Queen's University
Geoffrey Hayes, University of Waterloo

The Anthes Papers: from Manuscript to Ontario's German Legacy

Thursday, September 29, 2011, 4:30 pm in HH 334

Dr. Susan Thorne from Queen's University has published as a freelance translator of Jurek Becker and William Koeppen and is currently working with the short stories of German-Chinese author Lingyuan Luo and with the research group translating and interpreting the Indian correspondence of East German theatre director Fritz Binnewitz. Dr. Thorne will speak on the deciphering and interpretation of the Anthes correspondence.

Dr. Geoff Hayes' interests lie in Canadian military and modern Canadian history. He has authored books on The Lincoln and Welland Regiment at War (1986), and Waterloo County. An Illustrated History (1997); and is co-editor of Vimy Ridge: A Canadian Reassessment (2007) and Afghanistan: Transition Under Threat (2008). Dr. Hayes will speak on the significance of their content for German-Ontarian history.

WATERLOO | ARTS

