

Meet German Film Director
Jörg Foth and Watch His Film
Latest from the Da-Da-R
(Letztes aus der Da-Dae-R)
In German with English Subtitles

Life in the final days of East Germany is satirized in this set of cabaret pieces by two acclaimed East German poets and songwriters. This is the first independent film made by an artistic production group that had chafed for years under the restrictive East German film system.

"Da-Da-R" is a pun on the irreverent Dada art movement and the German acronym for East Germany (the "DDR.")

Monday, 18 October 2010
7:00pm to 9:00pm
East Campus Hall, Room 1219
University of Waterloo

Prof. Gabriele Mueller (York University) will introduce the film and Mr. Foth.
There will be a question and answer session after the screening.
