In the Loop: CTE's Monthly Newsletter

Please share it with your TAs!

timely, actionable, week-specific tips that instructors and teaching assistants can

And lastly, our splendid graduate students:

First, our wonderful co-op students, Lara

We'd like to thanks and goodbye to several individuals who have worked at CTE for Racism.

types of curriculum conversations we can facilitate. In the Spring term, we have monthly meetings, we are identifying

CTE's Continuous Improvement

New CTE Resources

Coordinators. Questions? Contact cte-

Teaching Assistant Training (Fall

Training for Fall TAs

Seed Grant idea you may have.

skills. Please get in touch with Kyle Scholz or Kristen Archbell to discuss any LITE

LITE Seed Grant round

The 2021 LITE Full Grant round has been suspended, and in its place an

LITE Grant Recipients

Conference

Save the Date: 13th Annual Teaching and Learning Conference

these problems as opportunities for evidence-based research.

problems in how we teach and/or how our students learn, and begin conceptualizing

Learning in developing Early Engagements

CTE has collaborated with the Student

Early Engagement Quick Tips

In this spring it has been so helpful. It feels like there is a teaching coach with appreciating.” — School of Architecture instructor create an interactive and supportive learning environment,

Want to change how you receive these emails? You can update your preferences

To subscribe to CTE's In the Loop newsletter, click here.