In the Loop: CTE's Monthly Newsletter will continue to be available to provide support, whether we are physically on campus or not. Please note that during the planned transition back to campus, CTE staff members will be working remotely. Dates and times of these and other workshops are available on CTE's workshops channel: https://learn.uwaterloo.ca/locus/cte-workshops.

November 2021

Upcoming Events and Workshops

3. Upcoming Events and Workshops

- Digital capacity – international marketing
  - November 12, 2021 - 12:00 pm
  - Description: This workshop will focus on strategies for attracting international students and promoting Waterloo's programs and culture.

- Digital content
  - November 15, 2021 - 12:00 pm
  - Description: Learn about best practices for creating effective digital content for a variety of platforms.

- Instructional Skills Workshop; getting to know each other
  - November 17, 2021 - 9:00 am to 12:00 pm
  - Description: An opportunity for instructor collaboration and discussion, offering support to the following areas:
    - Educational area (Learning by Helping: The Development and Deployment of Teaching and Learning Programming with Comics)
    - Teaching and Learning Programming with Comics
    - Teaching and Learning Methods course
    - Teaching and Learning LEARN course
    - Supporting Student Mental Health course

- Instructional Skills Workshop for all
  - November 19, 2021 - 9:00 am to 12:00 pm
  - Description: This workshop is designed to help instructors improve their teaching skills and knowledge of best practices.

- Instructional Skills Workshop: Supporting Student Mental Health
  - November 21, 2021 - 9:00 am to 12:00 pm
  - Description: A chance for instructors to learn about strategies for supporting students' mental health in the classroom.

- Instructional Skills Workshop: Theatre and Mental Health
  - November 23, 2021 - 9:00 am to 12:00 pm
  - Description: An opportunity for instructors to explore the intersection of theatre and mental health, and how it can be applied in the classroom.

- Instructional Skills Workshop: Learning by Helping
  - November 25, 2021 - 9:00 am to 12:00 pm
  - Description: A workshop for instructors interested in learning about strategies for helping students in their work.