

My screencast for the “Resolving Instructional Challenges in Blended Courses” workshop can be found here:

- <http://bit.ly/morton-alignment>

My screencast makes use of several documents, all of which are available below:

- Here’s the online version of the comprehensive or “long” Instructional Challenges Inventory:
<http://bit.ly/morton-ic-long>
- Here’s the online version of the streamlined or “short” Instructional Challenges Inventory (it contains the 16 most common instructional challenges):
<http://bit.ly/morton-ic-short>
- Here’s the Word file for the template entitled “Aligning Learning Outcomes, Learning Activities, & Assessments in the Blended Learning Environment”:
<http://bit.ly/morton-alignment-outcomes>
- Here’s the Word file for the template entitled “Aligning Instructional Challenges, Learning Activities, & Assessments in the Blended Learning Environment “:
<http://bit.ly/morton-alignment-challenges>
- And here’s the transcript of the screencast itself:
<http://bit.ly/morton-eli-transcript>

You’re welcome to use or adapt any of the materials above. However, if you do so, please let me know and credit me on your adaptations as the originator. I am:

Dr. Mark Morton
Centre for Teaching Excellence
University of Waterloo

mmorton@uwaterloo.ca
www.markmorton.ca