Unmask cats and reveal their hidden features before other players do the same to you! In Cloaked Cats, you will strategically play cat cards that will force other players to reveal clues about their own cat's pose, colour, pattern, and accessory. But you must remember to also try to keep you own cat's features a secret! Use these clues to try and guess the hidden features of other players' cats and win "mask" points (or lose mask points if you guess wrong!). The player with the most points from masks and keeping their own cat's features a secret, wins the game!
