There is a guilty fox – and you are all trying to find out who it is together before the thief escapes down the fox hole! On your turn, you try to roll three “eyes” or “clue paws” on the dice so that you can either reveal suspects or use the special clue decoder to uncover clues about what the thief might be wearing (or not wearing!). With these clues, together you can eliminate suspects who are not wearing these things and get closer to the real guilty thief! Can you all figure out who it is before they escape down the fox hole?
