Work together to help the mole rats collect their equipment and escape the space station before it's too late! In Space Escape, you will follow the symbols on your cards to strategically move mole rats and snakes around the board. Your goal as a team of mole rats is to collect all your equipment and escape before a snake can enter the escape pod or the deck of cards runs out! But watch out – if you or a fellow mole rat gets bitten by a snake twice, or if a mole rat gets thrown into space down an air shaft tube, you all lose!
