Complementary Studies (List D) Course Approval Form

The Department of Civil Engineering will allow at most one non-technical, technique-development course as part of the Complementary Studies Requirement for Engineering Students in the category of List D—Other Permissible Complementary Studies Courses (i.e., as a List-D CSE). Examples include language courses, dance/music studio courses, dramatic-performance courses, and the public-speaking course Drama 223. Your choice of course must be approved by the Associate Chair for Undergraduate Studies, Department of Civil Engineering. Also, except for DRAMA 223, ENGL 109, ENGL 129R, and ENGL 210C, the department offering the course must evaluate you to determine that the level of the course chosen is appropriate to your existing skills. The completed form is to be submitted to the Department of Civil Engineering and will be retained in your file.
