DESCRIPTION
The purpose of this course is to strengthen and increase knowledge of the Latin language begun in Latin 101 and 102. We will accomplish this by studying the last thirteen chapters of Wheelock’s Latin and certain sections of Bennett’s New Latin Grammar, with Latin composition exercises and assignments to reinforce the grammatical concepts learned. Reading unadapted passages classical Latin texts will further strengthen our knowledge of the Latin language by providing some hands-on experience with an actual Roman author.

OBJECTIVES
By the end of this course the student will be able to:
1. Translate Classical Latin prose texts accurately into English with the use of a Latin-English lexicon.
2. Translate a wide range of English expressions and sentences into proper Latin with the use of an English-Latin lexicon.
3. Analyze and explain Latin-derived English words, expressions and grammatical structures at a sophisticated level through the recognition of their derivation.
4. Understand the fascinating complexities of lexical semantics and of syntax so that s/he is encouraged and enabled to study other languages or language itself (linguistics) efficiently and enthusiastically.

5. Advance successfully to the demands of Latin language courses at the senior level.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Class participation

   Every student will be expected to maintain faithful attendance and have daily homework assignments completed and ready to be discussed and/or presented in class.

2. Weekly Grammar Quizzes

   For the first six weeks of the course we will be finishing up Wheelock's Latin (Chapters 28-40). In the first half of the course there will be five tests based on the grammar of Wheelock's Latin covered the previous week (more or less—please note dates in Calendar below). The quizzes may include Latin to English translation, grammatical explanations, vocabulary and forms.

3. Unadapted Latin Test

   The test on the unadapted readings covered in class will be held on Friday, November 20. It will be 50 minutes in length and will include translation of, and grammatical questions on, the unadapted Latin passages covered in class.

4. Final Exam

   The Final Exam will be scheduled by the university for the exam period, December 7-21. Approximately 50% of the final will be English to Latin composition based on the composition sentences covered in class; approximately 30% will be translation and/or grammatical questions based on the passages from the unadapted Latin covered in class; approximately 20% of the exam will be a sight translation from one of the unadapted Latin authors we have covered in class.

CALCULATION OF MARK

1. Class Participation 10%
2. Grammar Quizzes 30%
3. Unadapted Latin Test 20%
4. Final Exam 40%

Cross-listed course

Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which rubric it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science rubric.
Academic Integrity

Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. See the UWaterloo Academic Integrity webpage and the Arts Academic Integrity webpage for more information.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. When in doubt, please be certain to contact the department’s administrative assistant who will provide further assistance.

Appeals: A decision made or penalty imposed under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes he/she has a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

Note for students with disabilities: The AccessAbility Services office, located on the first floor of the Needles Hall extension (1401), collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS office at the beginning of each academic term.

Mental Health Support

All of us need a support system. The faculty and staff in Arts encourage students to seek out mental health supports if they are needed.
