Co-op designation requirements:

You must be enrolled full-time in honours co-op from admission through to graduation. Unless otherwise approved, you must follow the prescribed work/study sequence for your plan.

International co-op students are advised that a change to your work/study sequence may jeopardize your Student Visa/work permit. We strongly encourage booking an immigration consulting appointment for more information.

To earn the co-op designation you must have:

- (a) completed all your academic degree requirements;
- (b) accumulated the minimum number of work term, work term report/reflection and PD credits required by your Faculty (see Study/Work Term Sequence Chart).

Each four-month period designated as a work term counts as a work term regardless of a credit being earned that term.

Your sequence must end with an academic term.

Sequence change information and directions:

A typical co-op sequence (beginning in year one) normally involves, and does not exceed, eight academic terms and six work terms. When admitted following year one, the number of scheduled and required work terms is adjusted accordingly.

Many departments are unable, due to limited resources, to offer courses in multiple terms. In addition, the undergraduate calendar may not always indicate the availability of a course in a particular term; therefore, you must investigate, before you submit your request, all possible impacts your proposed change might have on your future access to the courses you need or want.

The challenge of accumulating courses for additional academic credentials (e.g., minors, double majors, etc.) does not constitute grounds for changing the sequence prescribed for your primary major (Plan 10).

Consult first with your academic advisor(s) and obtain approval before agreeing with an employer to make a change to your sequence. This includes applying for jobs longer than four months (e.g., 8, 12, 16 months) when you do not have a corresponding scheduled work term.

Note: approval of your request does not prevent future changes to course availability; therefore, you must schedule your courses carefully as your new sequence unfolds. In some instances, you may find it necessary to make a subsequent change to your sequence to accommodate unforeseen changes in course scheduling.

Submit your completed request to your Academic Advisor who will then sign and forward it to Co-operative Education on your behalf. You may be contacted by Co-operative Education for clarification and/or additional information.

Additional notes:

1. Requests to reduce the number of academic or work terms required, or exceed the number of work terms prescribed for your sequence, will not normally be approved.
2. Students seeking to defer a scheduled work term after failing to secure employment for that originally scheduled work term may have their access to WaterlooWorks restricted or denied for the newly deferred term. Consult with your academic advisor for further clarity.
3. Co-op fees are assessed on full-time academic terms. The number of fees assessed varies by plan to a maximum of eight. Co-op fees are non-refundable.
4. Normally, a sequence change request must be submitted no later than one month before the date the proposed sequence change would occur (please note the dates for course selection). Forms should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the date by which you must select courses for your next scheduled academic term.
5. Should you wish/need to cancel any course enrollments for your current or next scheduled academic term because of the change in your sequence, you must do so through Quest or at the Registrar's Office. It is your responsibility to investigate any impact your sequence change request might have on your enrollment in a PD course. Add or remove required PD courses as necessary (e.g., a sequence change that delays the timing of your first work term will require you to change the term you enrol in PD 1, 2, 11, 12, 20 or 21).
6. If approved for a work term longer than four months, you are advised to arrange any necessary extensions to your WUSA Health and Dental Plan coverage or your own private health care coverage as well as your student loan status (if applicable).
7. Any sequence change request that removes a work term in which you are already employed will not normally be considered regardless of how the work term was arranged (i.e., an employment match or an externally arranged job).
8. Processed forms will be retained by Co-operative Education until 2 years after graduation or inactivation. Approved changes will be stored in your interaction tracking file in WaterlooWorks after your request has been processed. Note: It is your responsibility to retain hard and/or soft copies of all your paperwork until you have completed your degree studies.
