We show how pairs of signed graphs with the same even cycles relate to pairs of grafts with the same even cuts. These results are proved in the more general context of signed binary matroids.