Message from the Chancellor

Welcome graduands, family members, and friends to the Spring 2023 convocation.

As Chancellor of the University of Waterloo, it is my honour to preside over this ceremony.

Today, we welcome representatives from our community including faculty, staff and alumni to share in and celebrate these achievements.

Convocation marks the growth of the University of Waterloo family with all of our graduates as its newest alumni members. Since the institution's inception in 1957, we have conferred nearly 242,000 degrees and certificates. Our alumni community extends to over 150 countries, and offers a network regardless of where the future takes our graduates.

The University of Waterloo is driven by a desire to uncover innovation through creativity. We are an institution founded in extraordinary times, and as a result generates extraordinary leaders.

When I look across our campuses and beyond, I see impactful innovations coming to fruition. Examples include using quantum to improve MRI capabilities, finding new methods to combat the spread of misinformation and integrating AI more seamlessly into a variety of applications – all three examples are gaining momentum because of the work being done at Waterloo.

We are a community of innovative leaders who seek out ways to solve the big problems of our time, from solar geo-engineering that mitigates global warming to miniature diabetes monitors that can detect glucose. What can't be lost is the breadth of knowledge and imagination within our community. From best-selling poets to NASA researchers and venture capitalists, Olympians to CEOs of multi-national corporations and leading environmentalists, we are providing the world with more Waterloo, and it is making the world a better place.

Profound disruptions persist globally – economic, technological, political, and social. This creates challenges, but also opportunities like we've never seen before. The world needs our graduates to harness all their experiences to lead and shape the future. The exceptional knowledge and creativity they have honed at the University of Waterloo has prepared all of them to be the leaders the world needs.

As our graduates cross the stage, they will bear the privilege and responsibility of bringing the spirit and values of this distinguished institution with them, wherever their lives may lead. They now have an opportunity to shape a better, more equitable world through their careers and community involvement.

Congratulations to all of our graduates and thank you for continuing the Waterloo tradition of excellence.

DOMINIC BARTON
Chancellor

“FROM BEST-SELLING POETS TO NASA RESEARCHERS AND VENTURE CAPITALISTS, OLYMPIANS TO CEOs OF MULTI-NATIONAL CORPORATIONS AND LEADING ENVIRONMENTALISTS, WE ARE PROVIDING THE WORLD WITH MORE WATERLOO, AND IT IS MAKING THE WORLD A BETTER PLACE.”

Message from the President and Vice-Chancellor

Congratulations to the Class of 2023.

We are thrilled to welcome our graduates and their family, friends and supporters to celebrate this momentous occasion.

Today's ceremony recognizes the hard work and perseverance students demonstrated during their time at the University of Waterloo. The experience at Waterloo is more than the knowledge gained in the classroom or library or the research undertaken in a lab. It is about the relationships and networks forged during each student's time here. Our institution's rich history and the success of our alumni is rooted in community. As graduates transition from student to alumni, I hope each will continue to stay connected to the Waterloo community.

For the family, friends, and supporters of our graduates, thank you. Thank you for being there for our students, for supporting them and encouraging their success. And thank you for being here today – this ceremony is more meaningful as a result of everyone's participation.

At the University of Waterloo, we pride ourselves on identifying and solving big, complex challenges facing our world. This happens not only on our campuses, but across the globe through our network of alumni. As the world continues to face multiple major crises that cut across society, health, the environment, technology and the economy, each new graduate is among the future leaders and change-makers who can help address these challenges and build a better future for humanity and our planet.

Waterloo graduates are known for integrating knowledge and problem-solving across disciplines. I look forward to hearing about the passions, the innovations and impact our graduates will have on their communities.

We all have an opportunity, and a responsibility, to positively impact those around us. Let's all work together to help shape the world for the better.

On behalf of the University of Waterloo, I wish you the best of luck in the journey ahead.

Our tradition of convocation

The ritual of convocation is a tradition that honours the roots of the University, and is, at the same time, a beginning for students who now enter a new stage in their lives.

We welcome guests on this celebratory occasion and thank you for being present to share in it.

Both the symbols and the ceremony of convocation look back far beyond the beginning of the University of Waterloo, back to the centuries of university life in Western civilization which Waterloo joined six decades ago. The founders of this University were eager from the beginning to make it part of that long tradition, although they proudly asserted that they were building a new and innovative university, with close ties to industry and an emphasis on practical knowledge for building the future.

On this day, as ancient customs mix with the use of up-to-date technology and the exuberance of a new generation, convocation connects a forward-looking university with the traditions that universities have observed as long as they have existed.

The University of Waterloo grew out of an older institution, Waterloo College. A still older one, the University of St. Jerome's College, soon became federated with it, and the College of Optometry of Ontario joined the family in 1967. Although all these institutions were newcomers compared with Oxford and Harvard and the Jagiellonian, the connection to the traditional role and style of a university remains clear.

Tradition underlies the proceedings of today's convocation, the continuity of this University with centuries of academic experience. Passion brings the proceedings to life, along with the enthusiasm with which the University recognizes new achievements and new ideas.

CONVOCATION

A CALLING TOGETHER

Students graduate at the end of a program of study, leading to a degree with a traditional name: Bachelor, Master, or Doctor. On this day, their families and friends celebrate their success and their transition from one status in life to another. Convocation has been, for the past nine hundred years, a meeting of the whole university community at which symbols are displayed, participants wear special attire to emphasize their official roles, and speakers share their wisdom and the values that the University seeks to teach. Convocation (the name comes from Latin, which was once the chief language of higher education) is a calling together of new graduates to receive the symbols of their accomplishment, and a calling together of the older members of the university to be witnesses and join in the celebration.

CONNECTING WITH TRADITION

At Waterloo's first convocation in June 1960, the guest speaker was James J. Talman of the University of Western Ontario, who told the audience a little about the history of Waterloo County and its industry. "The greatest resource we still have is the minds of the people," Talman said, "and this resource still remains to be developed to its full potential. The people of the Grand Valley clearly appreciate this fact. As we see the success with which they developed the physical resources in the past, we can only conclude that they will be just as successful in developing the intellectual resources of the future. The University of Waterloo can look forward to a brilliant and successful future."

THE PROCESSION

The most impressive part of the ceremony may be the procession that begins it. The graduating students will come in first, and as they fill up the main body of the hall, they will give the impression that today's ceremony really is, as convocation used to be, a ceremonial meeting of the whole University community.

After the graduating students have come in, the academic procession will begin. First to enter is the ceremonial Eagle Staff, a symbolic representation of the continuous presence of Indigenous peoples of these lands, carried in by an Eagle Staff carrier. Next, a selected faculty member will carry the mace, a traditional symbol of the University's authority. Then faculty members enter, walking two by two, dressed in their academic finery.

The final party to arrive is the Chancellor's party. The Chancellor is the ceremonial head of the University of Waterloo. The Chancellor presides over convocation ceremonies every June and October and awards all degrees, diplomas and certificates, including honorary degrees. The Chancellor offers an inspirational message for the graduands – at these ceremonies.

THE MACE

This solid silver and ebony wand was given to the University in 1965 by the family of the late Stanley F. Leavine and was designed by Toronto artist Eric Aldwinckle and crafted by silversmith Harold Stacey to symbolize the University as it was at that time. It displays lions, chevrons, and the shield of the province of Ontario, from which the University holds its charter to grant degrees.

The symbolic theme of the mace is unity amid diversity, and tension in the creative intellectual process that strives to bring forth a new individual. The design of the mace interprets this theme in the idiom of the life process: from the seeds at the base of the stave the mace grows in unity and strength until it differentiates by a four-fold separation into diverse elements.

The four-fold diversity is significant because of the four faculties existing at the time the mace was presented to the University and as well of the four church-related colleges federated and affiliated with the University. These diverse elements together form a crown, and the point of the crown, while tending toward a union, do not quite touch. They remain as individuals suspended in tension and yet engaged in deep harmony. This creative process is focused not on the traditional spherical orb of static perfection but rather on an elliptical silver ovum – the egg-shaped symbol of creativity – the marvelous potential of a new individual life.

THE COAT OF ARMS AND MOTTO

The lions and chevrons also appear on the shield that is the University's coat of arms and that is imprinted on the graduates' diplomas. Derived from traditional heraldry, it has been used since 1961 and was registered with the Court of the Lord Lyon in 1987. The shield uses the official colours of gold, black, and white, and its symbols refer to the University's base in the cities of Kitchener and Waterloo. The unusual double chevrons were borrowed from the coat of arms of Lord Kitchener of Khartoum, and the red lions are like those on the coat of arms of the Duke of Wellington, victor at the 1815 Battle of Waterloo. The lions also reflect the tough and innovative spirit of the University's founders and builders, and the black and white in the chevron are the colours of Prussia, reflecting the Germanic background of many Waterloo County settlers. Beneath the shield appears the University's motto, Concordia cum veritate, "In harmony with truth."

DEGREES AND HONORARY DEGREES

Presentations of earned and honorary degrees, and the speeches associated with them, take up most of the time at Convocation. Undergraduate and graduate degrees are awarded in each of our six faculties: the faculties of Arts, Engineering, Environment, Health, Mathematics and Science. Also included are students who attended our colleges, Conrad Grebel University College, Renison University College, St. Jerome's University and United College.

In addition to "earned" degrees awarded to students who have met the requirements through years of effort, the University of Waterloo confers "honorary" degrees to individuals who have been designated by the Senate, the University's academic governing body, as deserving special honour. They, too, receive hoods, lined with the colour of the faculty that nominated them or with specially designated colours for other kinds of achievement.

By tradition, public service is recognized with a Doctor of Laws degree even in a university that does not regularly teach law. The individuals receiving honorary degrees are introduced during the ceremony, and a brief citation is read to explain their various accomplishments deserving of recognition by a university. One of the honorands will address convocation after the degree has been given.

A new tradition

EAGLE STAFF

On September 22, 2022, the University of Waterloo held a Commitment Ceremony pledging action towards decolonization, Indigenization and reconciliation. The University is committed to fostering better understanding of Indigenous histories and ensuring Indigenous knowledges and ways of knowing are represented in our scholarship, in our research and in our teachings. Weaving in the knowledges, ways of knowing, and understandings of First Nation, Métis and Inuit peoples equips the Waterloo community, especially Waterloo graduates, with the tools and knowledge they need to create a better future for all. The commitment was formalized through a Pipe Ceremony, after which President and Vice-Chancellor, Vivek Goel, was given the name “Ogiima” (meaning leader) and presented with gifts of an eagle feather and two Wampum belts.

Building on the desire and responsibility to incorporate Indigenous perspectives, the University of Waterloo community came together for a ceremony on March 27, 2023, to welcome an Eagle Staff to the University.

An Eagle Staff is an important element of the Indigenous relationship to Earth and those that have protected it. It reflects the wisdom, strength and honour of those that carry it in representing different Nations across Turtle Island. By welcoming the Eagle Staff, the University acknowledges the responsibility to recognize, accept and incorporate Indigenous perspectives in the ways we teach, govern and behave as an institution. The Eagle Staff will be present at future Waterloo ceremonies and celebrations and will have a prominent place in convocation ceremonies.

The Eagle Staff honours the University’s First Nations, Métis and Inuit community members, as well as their traditions, cultures and strengths. It is a sacred item that holds a spirit within itself that is cared for by the Indigenous campus community, and that care is reciprocated by the Eagle Staff.

Waterloo Region is situated on territory traditionally shared by Anishinaabeg, Neutral (or Attawandaron), and Haudenosaunee Nations. Though many nations, including the Anishinaabeg, involve an Eagle Staff in their traditions and practices, we respectfully acknowledge that this is not the practice of all nations. With gratitude, we honour and celebrate the unique traditions of all First Nations, Métis and Inuit people, and look forward to reflecting this diversity in spirit and custom as we move forward on this path of decolonization, Indigenization, and reconciliation.

“THE STAFF WILL SERVE AS AN IMPORTANT SYMBOL AND REMINDER OF THE COMMITMENT WE MADE TO RECONCILIATION AND SERVE AS INSPIRATION FOR OUR UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY TODAY AND FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS.”

Before joining the University of Waterloo, she served as a professor of Civil Engineering at the Universities of Kentucky, Connecticut and Vermont. Aultman-Hall's research focuses on sustainable transportation systems, especially methods to collect unique databases for modelling and analysis of long-distance travel, transportation sector emissions, network resiliency, streetscape design and non-motorized transportation. A common thread in her work is the pursuit of accessibility metrics that speak to equity. She served several leadership roles at the interdisciplinary University of Vermont Transportation Research Center and as the associate director of the National Center for Sustainable Transportation with the University of California Davis.

Waterloo brings home the gold

Alumni Gold Medal recipients share in the pursuit of discovery, so we created a lasting symbol to honour their achievements.

Since 1970, Alumni Gold Medals have graced the convocation gowns of our top undergraduate and graduate students. The Royal Canadian Mint produced these medals in the past – but in the true spirit of Waterloo, we've decided to make them ourselves.

Carefully crafted on campus in state-of-the-art labs, each medal is created out of nickel superalloy using a 3D printer. The surface is finished by hand to produce a brilliant shine. Through the process of electroplating, the medal is then coated in 24-carat gold. The result is a tribute to Waterloo's most accomplished graduates, made for each proud recipient by members of the University community.

Our tradition of regalia

THE GOWN

At the University of Waterloo, as at most universities, academic robes are worn only on these special occasions. In the Middle Ages, robes were everyday clothing, and some students were so poor they had nothing else to wear. The black wrapper now called a “gown” served them as jacket, coat and sometimes bedclothes. Stone college buildings of the Middle Ages were unheated and the colourful “hood” could be pulled up to help keep out the cold wind. Today, the officers of the University, faculty members and graduating students all wear garments that are symbolic, not functional.

The scholars and students in long-ago universities were generally monks and other members of church orders. Over time, their vestments came to identify their universities. There are many variations, and the exact hood, gown or hat worn by an individual are determined by the university where they qualified. The array of colours and styles demonstrates the worldwide range of universities from which Waterloo’s faculty have come.

THE HOOD

Hoods are unique in design and colour to each degree and each university. The academic dress chosen for Waterloo is patterned after that of Oxford, the world’s oldest English-speaking university. The chief officers on the convocation platform – the Chancellor (the ceremonial head of the University) and the president (who is also Vice-Chancellor) – wear gowns of the Oxford cut and trim, each with its own distinctive colour. The gowns worn by recipients of honorary degrees have the same design, as do the black gowns worn by candidates for regular degrees, and the red-and-green gowns which are Waterloo’s regalia for Doctor of Philosophy degrees.

The ritual at convocation reflects the old custom that anyone in a university could wear a gown, but a hood was the symbol for a degree.
