

CPI News

Cybersecurity & Privacy Institute Newsletter

UPCOMING EVENT: CPI TALK- DATA BREACHES AND MULTIPLE POINTS TO STOP THEM

How do we prevent, detect, or stop a data breach?

Join us on Dec 1st to find out!

In our latest CPI Talk, guest speaker Daphne Yao will talk about data breaches, government regulations, and cybersecurity risks.

More details about this session are available on our event page.

CPI Talks are intended for the general public. Everyone is welcome!

Daphne Yao is a computer science professor at Virginia Tech. Her research focuses on building cyber defenses and machine learning for digital health.

Recent Updates

WELCOME COLIN RUSSELL

Congratulations to Colin Russell, who is now the Managing Director of CPI!
Read his full story.

WE'RE ON SOCIAL MEDIA!

Follow our Twitter for upcoming events and news updates. We will be posting recordings of our events on YouTube.

Click on the names and you'll be redirected to our accounts.

CYBERSECURITY MONTH

Last month, we hosted a series of events to mark Cybersecurity Awareness month.

These included panels on privacy & technology, software security, research and espionage.

Did you miss out?

Check out this page for these event recordings!

CHIPPIE CLUSTER

A new compute facility, the Chippie cluster, is now available for use by researchers sponsored by CPI members. Chippie features fast multi-core processors and several GPUs.

Learn more on our page

BLACKBERRY & CPI SCHOLARSHIPS

We want to thank BlackBerry for sponsoring a Cybersecurity and Privacy Excellence Graduate Scholarship, which is worth $10,000 CAD for one academic year. Congratulations to this year's winners: Siddharth Priya and Mahbod Majid!

Read about the winners' stories on our page.

Request

Do you want to share something for the next newsletter?

For requests please email our communications specialist Mayuri Punithan at mpunitha@uwaterloo.ca

A MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

We have been revamping and improving CPI communications.

A regular newsletter is one such initiative. We would like to hear your feedback on how to improve our communications.

Please email us at: ecpi@uwaterloo.ca

Over the next few months, we will go through the process of applying for renewing CPI for a five-year period. Colin Russell, our new managing director, is leading the preparation of our renewal support. Colin will be reaching out to you as he collects data for the report. We will welcome your suggestions and ideas.

Please email Colin at: colin.russell@uwaterloo.ca