University of Waterloo

Sessional lecturer required

The Department of Economics is looking for a sessional lecturer to teach a third year economics course, Econ 344, Marketing: Principles of Marketing and Consumer Economics, in the January – April 2018 term.

Salary per term: $8,082

Responsibilities:
- Responsible for all lectures, exams and grading. Some assistance with marking may be available.
- Maintain regular office hours (a minimum of 1.5 hours per week per course) for student advising.

Required Qualifications:
- At least a master’s degree in economics, business or related field.
- Preference given to individuals with university or college-level teaching experience.

Course Details

A previous term’s course outline can be found here: https://uwaterloo.ca/economics/undergraduate/courses/outlines

Application Deadline:

We will accept applications until the position is filled.

Applicants should send a CV and past teaching evaluations, if available, to Professor Margaret Insley (margaret.insley@uwaterloo.ca).