Course Description
Authors have contributed to the study of what we recognize today as ‘economic phenomena’ since the time of Aristotle (384-322 B.C.) in Ancient Greece. Concerns over prosperity and the stable development of communities (city-states, later national ones) have combined with different emphases upon equity and justice of economic outcomes. In this course we will ask how the statement and analysis of these economic problems has developed historically under the influence of intellectual, cultural, social, political, and economic history. The main focus will be on the development of economics in the modern period of Western history (16th Century to post-WWII).

Course Goals and Learning Outcomes
By following this course students should:

A. Gain an understanding of how the discipline of economics formed and has developed.
B. Improve their ability to discuss economic problems verbally and through written expression.

Participation (10% of grade)
There will be four discussion classes over the course of the term. Students are expected to prepare the assigned readings and participate in their interpretation.

Short Essays (3 over the term, each worth 10%)
Students will be required to submit 3 short essays. Each essay will provide a well-reasoned answer to a question about a passage written by a particular author (Smith, Marx, Keynes). Each essay will be 3-4 double spaced pages in length (750-1000 words).

Midterm Examination (25% of grade)
The midterm exam will be held in class on February 28. It will test students’ grasp of the material covered in the lectures and in course readings. The format will be a combination of short answer and essays.

Final Examination (35% of grade)
The final exam is comprehensive. It will test students’ grasp of the material covered in the lectures and in course readings. The format will be a combination of short answer and essays. The date will be set by the Registrar’s Office.

Missed Work and Accommodation Regarding Assessment
If a student is unable to the midterm exam for documented reasons, the weight of the midterm will be shifted automatically to the final exam. Please note that students who decide to take an exam cannot be given accommodation after the fact due to illness or personal complicating factors that may have affected their performance. If you are not well on the day of an exam it is advisable that you not take the exam and obtain valid documentation of the circumstances of this decision.

Electronic Device Policy
To avoid disruptions to the learning environment handheld devices must be turned off during the lecture and laptops must be used strictly for lecture-related purposes. If a student’s use of a laptop becomes a distraction for adjacent students that student will be asked to discontinue its use.

Attendance Policy
Lectures are an important component of the learning process and should be attended regularly.

Undergraduate Council, April 14, 2009

Academic Integrity
In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo community are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. See the UWaterloo Academic Integrity webpage and the Arts Academic Integrity webpage for more information.

Discipline
A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, Grievance
A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4 (https://uwaterloo.ca/secretariat-general-counsel/policies-procedures-guidelines/policy-70). When in doubt, please be certain to contact the department’s administrative assistant who will provide further assistance.

Appeals
A decision made or penalty imposed under Policy 70, Student Petitions and Grievances (other than a petition) or Policy 71, Student Discipline may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes he/she has a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy 72, Student Appeals (https://uwaterloo.ca/secretariat-general-counsel/policies-procedures-guidelines/policy-72).

Note for Students with Disabilities
The AccessAbility Services office, located on the first floor of the Needles Hall extension (NH 1401), collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS office at the beginning of each academic term.

Turnitin.com: Text matching software (Turnitin®) will be used to screen assignments in this course. This is being done to verify that use of all material and sources in assignments is documented. Students will be given an option if they do not want to have their assignment screened by Turnitin®. In the first week of the term, details will be provided about arrangements and alternatives for the use of Turnitin® in this course.

Cross-listed Course (if applicable)
Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which rubric it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science rubric.
