Course Outline
This course outline will be available at two locations for the duration of the term:

1. Department of Economics website
2. LEARN website

Course Description
This course provides an introduction to macroeconomic analysis relevant for understanding the Canadian economy as a whole. The determinants of national output, the unemployment rate, the price level (inflation), interest rates, the money supply and the balance of payments, and the role of government fiscal and monetary policy are the main topics covered.

Course Objectives
Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

• Describe the basic macroeconomic variables.
• Understand the models that determine the basic macroeconomic variables.
• Distinguish between the long run and the short run.
• Understand how the government and the central bank can influence outcomes in the economy.
• Understand current macroeconomic events

Notes
- The format for the in-class quizzes and the final exam will be multiple choice questions.
- Quiz grades will be posted on Learn.
- The final exam period for Winter Term 2019 is April 10 to April 27 inclusive. Students are expected to be available during this time. Travel plans are not acceptable grounds for granting an alternative final examination time. (See Registrar’s Office Examinations and Related Matters)
- The date and time for the final exam will be determined by the Registrar’s Office.
- The final exam schedule is posted online, will be announced in class, and posted on LEARN.
- Only the Registrar’s Office can issue final grades

Examination Policy

Missing a Midterm Due to Illness During the Term
- Missing a quiz will automatically result in a grade of zero for that quiz. If the illness can be documented with a UW Verification of Illness Form (the only acceptable document), with approval you may transfer the weight of the missed quiz to the final exam. This remedy is a privilege and not a right.
• Immediately upon your return, please deliver to me a hard copy of your medical document.
• The quiz schedule is set and will not be changed for any reason.

Missing the Final Exam Due to Illness
• Missing the final exam is a very serious matter which automatically results in a grade of zero for the final exam and possibly a failing grade for the course. Please carefully read the Economics Department policy on deferred final exams for instructions.
• No deferred final exam will be provided for students who missed all the exams (including the final exam) in this course. Deferred Final Exam Policy.

Submission of Exam Papers
• Late submission of exam papers is not accepted and missed submissions will receive a grade of zero for whatever reason.
• Exam papers must be submitted in whole and on time in the exam room. Exam papers (a) not submitted on time,
  (b) submitted with missing pages,
  (c) submitted elsewhere, with the exception of students with permission to write in the AS Office,
  (d) or not received at all will receive a grade of zero for whatever reason.
• It is the responsibility of students to ensure that they write exams in the location, date, and time assigned to their section. Students writing exams in the wrong section will be assessed a 20% penalty on the final exam grade. There will be no accommodation for possible differences in exam material or content.

Fee-Arranged Issues
Students are responsible for administrative matters concerning their course registration including fee arrangements. No make-up work or other remedies will be given for loss of access to LEARN and academic consequences arising from administrative issues with the Registrar’s Office.

Electronic Device Policy
• THIS IS A HANDHELD-DEVICE-FREE ZONE.
• Turn off all handheld devices and put them away for the duration of the lecture.
• Laptop computers may only be used to view lecture material.
• Photographic devices are not permitted in class due to copyright and privacy issues.
• Audio or video recording devices are not permitted in class due to copyright and privacy concerns.

Attendance Policy
Class attendance is an integral part of the course. Although attendance is not formally taken, it is critical for understanding the course material. Students are responsible for all material covered whether they choose to attend lectures or not.

Classroom Protocols
• I do NOT lend my lecture notes to students for any reason.
• In order to maintain a learning environment in this classroom, I expect the highest level of courtesy and professional behavior from every student. In particular, be punctual and turn off all audible ringers on all devices during class.
• As a courtesy to others, no eating in class please. If you have coffee, water, etc., please dispose of your garbage when you leave the classroom.
• No private conversations in class will be tolerated

Institutional-required statements for undergraduate course outlines approved by Senate Undergraduate Council, April 14, 2009

Cross-listed course
Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which rubric it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science rubric.

Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. See the UWaterloo Academic Integrity Webpage (https://uwaterloo.ca/academic-integrity/) and the Arts Academic Integrity Office Webpage (http://arts.uwaterloo.ca/current-undergraduates/academic-responsibility) for more information.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offenses, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offense, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offenses (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, including writing exams in a section that you are not registered in, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties (http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/guidelines/penaltyguidelines.htm).
Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. In addition, read the Student Grievance Process for the Faculty of Arts.

Appeals: A student may appeal the finding and/or penalty in a decision made under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than regarding a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline if a ground for an appeal can be established. Read Policy 72 - Student Appeals.
