Course Description

This course covers fundamentals of microeconomics and will serve you as a foundation for literally all the theoretical material you are going to learn in economics. We will build two blocks of Consumer and Producer theories, then combine the two in competitive market environment. We then consider other market structures such as Monopoly, Oligopoly and Monopolistic Competition. We will try to introduce students to basics of Game Theory. We will attempt to reach as far through the topics list as our limited time allows.

Prerequisite: ECON 101.
Learning Objectives of the course

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

• apply elements of microeconomic theory to understand how consumers and producers make rational decisions;
• explain the fundamental features of several different market structures;
• apply theoretical understanding to problems of production and costs analysis;
• use applied economic techniques to analyze conceptual problems;

Course Requirements and Assessment

Your grade in this course will be based on two midterm exams and a final examination. The midterms will be written in the class time on the dates in the table below and the best result will be worth 30% of your final grade with the second best result being worth 20% of your final grade. The final exam will constitute 50% of your final grade and will be
Assessment | Date | Weighting
--- | --- | ---
Midterm 1 | June 2\textsuperscript{nd}, in class hours | 20% or 30%
Midterm 2 | June 30\textsuperscript{th}, in class hours | 20% or 30%
Final Exam | TBA (Aug 2\textsuperscript{nd} – 13\textsuperscript{th}) | 50%
Total | | 100%

comprehensive (i.e. cover all course material from beginning to end).

Notes

- The format for both midterms and the final exam will be a combination of multiple-choice questions and short-answer problems.

- The final exam period for the Fall Term 2015 is Aug 2–13th inclusive. Students are expected to be available during this time. Travel plans are not acceptable grounds for granting an alternative final examination time. Please see Examination Regulations and Related Matters.

- The exact date and time for the final exam for this class will be determined by the Registrar’s Office. The exam schedule is posted online, will be announced in class, and posted on LEARN.

- Only the Registrar’s Office can issue final grades.

This grading scheme will be implemented strictly for all students in the course (with the exception of verified illnesses – see below).

Examination Policy

Missing a Midterm Due to Illness During the Term

- Missing a midterm will automatically result in a grade of zero for that midterm. If the illness can be documented with a UW Verification of Illness Form (the only acceptable document). Upon approval you may transfer the weight of the missed midterm to the final exam. This remedy is a privilege and not a right.

- The midterm exam schedule has been set and will not be changed for whatever reason (and no make-up midterm exams will be offered).

Missing the Final Exam Due to Illness

- Missing the final exam is a very serious matter which automatically results in a grade of zero for the final exam and possibly a failing grade for the course. Please carefully read the Economics Department Policy on Deferred Final Exams for instructions.
• No deferred final exam will be provided for students who missed all the exams (including the final exam) in this course.

Submission of Exam Papers
Exam papers must be submitted in whole and on time in the exam room. Exam papers will receive a grade of zero for whatever reason if:

• not submitted on time,

• submitted with missing pages,

• submitted elsewhere, with the exception of students with permission to write in the AS Office,

• not received at all

It is the responsibility of students to ensure that they write exams in the location, date, and time assigned to their section. Students writing exams in the wrong section will be assessed a 20% penalty on the final exam grade. There will be no accommodation for possible differences in exam material or content.

Policy on remarking of Tests:
If you feel that your test was not marked properly, you must advise the instructor within 5 business days of the date on which the test is handed back to the class. Any student that submits a test for remarking should understand that the entire test will be remarked and that their grade may improve, remain unchanged or perhaps even decrease as a result of the remarking process.

Topics Covered

• Consumer Theory: Weeks 1 to 4

• Producer Theory: Lectures 5 to 8

• Market Structures: Lectures 9 to 12

• Game Theory: Time permitting at the end of the course.

Here is an ambitious guideline to follow, given our limited time together, adjustments and modifications might be required that will be communicated with you in class or through learn:

Other Important Policies

Electronic Device Policy

• THE CLASSROOM IS A HANDHELD-DEVICE-FREE ZONE.
• Turn off all handheld devices and put them away for the duration of the lecture, please.
• Laptops may only be used to view lecture material.
• Photographic devices are not permitted in class due to copyright and privacy issues.
• video recording devices are not permitted in class due to copyright and privacy issues.

Attendance Policy:
Class attendance is an integral part of your educational experience. While attendance is not a graded component of this course, you are responsible for all material presented in the scheduled lecture periods whether you choose to attend lectures or not. My recommendation: if you choose not to attend, you are missing the fun part, seriously.

Classroom Protocols

• In order to maintain a learning environment in classroom, I expect the highest level of courtesy and professional behaviour from every student. In particular, be punctual and turn off all audible ringers on all devices during class.
• As a courtesy to the custodial staff, if you have coffee, water, etc., please dispose of your garbage when you leave the classroom.
• No private conversations in class, Please.

Institutional-required statements for undergraduate course outlines approved by Senate Undergraduate Council, April 14, 2009.

Economics Department Deferred Final Exam Policy
Deferred Final Exam Policy can be found at: (https://uwaterloo.ca/economics/current-undergraduates/policies-and-resources/deferred-final-exam-policy)

Cross-listed Course
Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which rubric it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science rubric.

Academic Integrity
In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo community are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. See the UWaterloo Academic Integrity Webpage, and the Arts Academic Integrity Office for more information.

Grievance
A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70, Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. In addition, read the Student Grievance Process for the Faculty of Arts.

Discipline
A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the undergraduate associate dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, including writing exams in a section that you are not registered in, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71, Student Discipline (http://wwwadm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy71.htm).

For typical penalties check (Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties). (http://wwwadm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/guidelines/penaltyguidelines.htm)

Appeals
A student may appeal the finding and/or penalty in a decision made under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than regarding a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline if a ground for an appeal can be established. Read Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Academic Integrity Office (uWaterloo): (http://uwaterloo.ca/academic-integrity/)

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities
The AccessAbility Services office, located in Needles Hall Room 1401, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS office at the beginning of each academic term.
