Course Objectives:
This is the second course in macroeconomics theory sequence and provides an extension of the tools developed in Macroeconomic theory 1. The objective of this course is to present a full coverage of modern macroeconomic theories and develop basic models to analyze both short run and long run phenomena in a closed economy. The questions of concern will include: Why are so many countries poor? What policies might help them to grow out of poverty? What causes recessions? Can the government do anything to combat recessions? Should it? What are the sources of economics booms and recessions? Why is there unemployment? What are the sources of inflation? And, how do government policies affect output, inflation and unemployment?
We will discuss the standard analytical methods used in macroeconomics that address these issues and provide a rigorous treatment of macroeconomic theories. We will closely look at the underlying micro foundations of macroeconomic theories and emphasize on the role of expectations. Topics will include the neoclassical growth models, real business cycles models, government spending and government debt, consumption, investment, models involving money and issues related to inflation. After completion of this course students will learn how these theoretical frameworks can be used to understand and interpret actual macroeconomic events.

Prerequisites:

Required Textbook:
Note: US edition of this textbook is also available.

Recommended Textbook:

Resources:
Course related materials including lecture notes are posted on Learn at: 1159 ECON 302 – Winter 2016
It is highly recommended that students attend the lectures and read the textbook. Lecture notes are provided as a supplement to the textbook. The content of the exams will be announced in class and on Learn. Students are responsible for visiting this site frequently.
Course Evaluation:
Student evaluation for this course will consist of two in-class midterm exams and a final exam. The exams will include both multiple choice questions and short questions. The rooms assigned for the midterm exams will be announced later in class and on Learn. Final exam will be comprehensive; it will include all materials covered in this course. The final exam date will be announced by the Registrar’s office. The final exam period for Fall 2016 term is from April 8 to April 23. Students are expected to be available during this time. An alternative final exam time is not allowed on the ground of travel plans.

Policy for Missed Exams:
No make-up midterm exam will be provided for this course. Students who do not have a relevant medical certificate will receive a mark of zero on any missed exam and their final grade will be assigned in accordance with the formula specified above. For students who have valid medical certificate (approved by the instructor), the weight of the missed exam will be transferred to the final exam.
No deferred final exam will be provided for student who missed all the exams (including the final exam) in this course. Students are advised to notify the instructor in person about the missed exam as soon as they are better. E-mail notification about the missed exam is not accepted.
Policy for Missed Final Exam:
For detailed instruction regarding missed final exam, visit the following webpage: https://uwaterloo.ca/economics/current-undergraduates/policies-and-resources/deferred-final-exam-policy

Grades:
Exam marks will be posted on Learn. Posting grades in public places or sending grades by e-mail are prohibited by university regulations.

Remarking Policy:
If any student feels that the exam is not marked properly, he/she must inform the instructor within 6 days of the date on which the grades are posted on Learn. Please be advised that the entire test will be remarked and the grade may improve, remain unchanged or perhaps even decrease as a result of the remarking process.

Notes:
Although it is not mandatory, attendance is highly recommended. Some of the materials covered in the class will not be included in the lecture notes so it is strongly advised that students attend classes regularly. Student participation in class is also highly encouraged. Since, the course contents are technical in nature; a person to person communication is preferred to answer questions. Students are welcome to ask any questions during the regular office hours. Regarding e-mail communication, students should use the university e-mail address. When sending an e-mail, write Econ 302
Cross-listed course:
Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which rubric it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science rubric.

Institutional-required statements for undergraduate course outlines approved by Senate Undergraduate Council, April 14, 2009:

Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline (https://uwaterloo.ca/secretariat-general-counsel/policies-procedures-guidelines/policy-71)

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances Appeals: A student may appeal the finding and/or penalty in a decision made under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than regarding a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline if a ground for an appeal can be established. Read Policy 72 - Student Appeals (https://uwaterloo.ca/secretariat-general-counsel/policies-procedures-guidelines/policy-72).
