General Course Objective

Many economic decisions are made in circumstances where there are no competitive markets. This course introduces students to individual and group choice in such settings. It covers how to model such settings as "games" in both the extensive and strategic form, and introduces the key equilibrium concepts associated with these models. An introduction to considerations in group decision making via cooperative game theory and welfare economics is provided in the last part of the course.

Course Goals and Learning Outcomes

This course is a required course for those students doing the Intensive Specialization. As such, we will be developing the mathematical foundations of game theory and social choice. Strong mathematical skills are required.

To get the most out of the course, students are strongly encouraged to attend all lectures, and participate in class discussion. A specific timetable indicating which topics will be discussed on a specific lecture date is provided but our progress will depend on class ability and interest in the lecture materials. For this reason, the contents of each week may change during the semester and the new version will be uploaded on LEARN when necessary.

Recommended Text

Osborne, Martin J., An Introduction to Game Theory, New York: Oxford University Press, 2004. (Chapters 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 16)
(Chapter 15 and 22)

(Chapters 6, 7, and 8)

Note that these texts are recommended, not required. The course material will follow along with the text somewhat, but will be presented quite differently. A good set of lecture notes is what is really required to do well in this course.

Notes on Office Hours or Contacting Instructor

If a student is not able to meet during office hours, I am open to arranging a mutually convenient appointment via email. When sending email, always use your University of Waterloo email account. “ECON 392” must appear in the subject line and the message must include your full name and student ID number.

Where to find this course outline: This course outline is available at two locations for the duration of the term:

- Department of Economics website
  https://uwaterloo.ca/economics/undergraduate/courses/outlines
- LEARN web site (requires UW user id and password) http://learn.uwaterloo.ca

Please use email for administrative concerns and very brief questions related to the course material. I will be available during office hours, or by appointment, to discuss course material.

Course Requirements and Assessment

For your assignments, you will be asked to solve mathematical problems pertaining to the material covered in the lectures. Due dates for the assignments are given below. You will have the problem sets at least 10 days before the due dates. Each assignment will constitute 10% of your final grade.

The midterm will be written in the class period on the date specified below and it will constitute 30% of your final grade.

The final exam, which will be scheduled by the registrar during the examination period in April, will constitute 40% of your final grade.

Important Notices

Late Work

Assignments are due by the end of class on the due date given. Late assignments received less than 24 hours after the deadline will be given a 25% penalty. Assignments received after 24 hours will not be marked.

Examination Policy

- No deferred or make-up midterm test. If the illness can be documented with a UW Verification of Illness Form (the only acceptable document), with approval you may transfer the weight of the missed midterm to the final exam. This remedy is a privilege and not a right. Immediately upon your return, please deliver to me a hard copy of your medical document. Otherwise, a mark of zero will be given to the missed test. The midterm schedule... is set and will not be changed for any reason.

- Late submission of exam papers is not accepted and missed submissions will receive a grade of zero for whatever reason. Exam papers must be submitted in whole and on time in the exam room. Exam papers
  - not submitted on time,
  - submitted with missing pages,
  - submitted elsewhere, with the exception of students with permission to write in the AS Office,
  - or not received at all will receive a grade of zero for whatever reason.

Electronic Device Policy

It is acceptable for students to bring laptops to class, especially for the purposes of taking notes. Please make sure your cell phones are on silent, however.

Attendance Policy and Classroom Protocols

- While the recommended textbook covers most of the material of this course, it does so in a manner that is different (and complementary) to the lectures. The assignments and exams will be based on the material as it is presented in the lectures. As such, students are strongly encouraged to attend all classes and take good notes.

- To maintain a classroom environment that is conducive to learning, students are expected to have the highest level of courtesy and professional behavior. Students must be punctual. If you know that you have to leave early, seat yourself near an exit. Please turn off all audible ringers on phones and other electronic devices while in class.

Economics Department Deferred Final Exam Policy

Deferred Final Exam Policy found at https://uwaterloo.ca/economics/undergraduate/resources-and-policies/deferred-final-exam-policy

Cross-listed course

Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which rubric it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science rubric.
Academic Integrity

In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. See the UWaterloo Academic Integrity webpage and the Arts Academic Integrity webpage for more information.

Discipline:

A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Grievance:

A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. When in doubt, please be certain to contact the department’s administrative assistant who will provide further assistance.

Appeals:

A decision made or penalty imposed under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes he/she has a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

Note for students with disabilities:

The AccessAbility Services office, located on the first floor of the Needles Hall extension (1401), collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS office at the beginning of each academic term.
If you are using Turnitin® in your course Turnitin.com:

Text matching software (Turnitin®) will be used to screen assignments in this course. This is being done to verify that use of all material and sources in assignments is documented. Students will be given an option if they do not want to have their assignment screened by Turnitin®. In the first week of the term, details will be provided about arrangements and alternatives for the use of Turnitin® in this course. Note: students must be given a reasonable option if they do not want to have their assignment screened by Turnitin®. See guidelines for instructors for more information.
