

Winter 2024 TA Job Posting for ECON 101 GBDA

Please give a brief description of the course content or a link to the course outline:

The course will explore basic concepts of introductory microeconomic theory. This course is specifically delivered to students in the Global Business and Digital Arts program and as such it will differ from standard ECON101 sections. The course material and assignments will be better suited for this creative, more design centric audience. Graduate students are encouraged to apply if they appreciate thinking about Economics from novel and interesting perspectives.

Any necessary knowledge or skills needed:

Basic microeconomic theory and an ability to consider varied perspectives.

Duty	Estimated Hours for the Term or N/A	Brief description of unusual or especially time-consuming features of the duty, if any
Meetings with Course Instructor	5
Class preparation	N/A
Attending lectures	N/A
Student consultation; office hours	15	If student demand for supplemental discussion becomes in excess of what the instructor can manage, a TA may be asked to provide some office-hours time.
Lecturing	N/A
Conducting tutorials	N/A
Grading	45	The main task of the TA will be to provide grading support for student projects and exams. Exams will usually be composed of short and Long answer questions, so grading requires attention.
Proctoring exams	5	The TA may be asked to proctor up to 2 in-class exams and a final exam scheduled during the final exam period
Other duties (describe/ explain)	0
Totals	70	