Final Examination Arrangements and Schedule

Please carefully review the information about writing exams for online courses, including dates, locations, how to make examination arrangements, writing with a proctor, and deadlines.

If you are taking any on-campus courses, you will automatically be scheduled to write your exam on campus. No action is required.

If you are taking only online courses, do one of the following:

- If your address in QUEST is within 100 km of an examination centre, you must choose an exam centre in Quest by Sunday, January 14, 2018. This must be done each term.
- If your address in Quest is more than 100 km from an exam centre, you must arrange for a proctor. Please review the guidelines and deadlines for writing with a proctor. This must be done each term.

Your online course exam schedule will be available in Quest approximately four weeks before your exam date(s). Instructions on how to find your schedule are posted on the Quest Help page.

University of Waterloo Senate-approved academic regulations related to assignments, tests, and final

exams can be found on the Registrar's website.

Official Grades and Course Access

Official Grades and Academic Standings are available through Quest.

Your access to this course will continue for the duration of the current term. You will not have access to this course once the next term begins.

Course Description and Objectives

Description

This course provides an introduction to macroeconomics analysis relevant for understanding the Canadian economy as a whole. The determinants of national output, the unemployment rate, the price level (inflation), interest rates, the money supply, exchange rates and the balance of payments, business cycle fluctuations, and the role of government fiscal and monetary policy are the main topics covered.

Objectives

By the end of this course, successful students will be able to

- describe the economic problem, with an emphasis on the macroeconomic perspective;
- define macroeconomic fundamental concepts, such as: GDP, growth, jobs, and inflation;
- explain macroeconomic concepts within the monetary markets such as: money, banking, exchange rate, and balance of payments;
- summarize approaches for explaining fluctuations in macroeconomic fundamentals, and;
- articulate the business cycle and approaches to stabilize the business cycle monetary and fiscal policy.

This online course was developed by Wendy Roth, with instructional design and multimedia development support provided by the Centre for Extended Learning.

About the Course Author

About the Course Author — Wendy Roth

Ms. Wendy Roth is a professional consultant, dividing her time between academic, research, and corporate endeavors. She has extensive experience as an educator in a wide range of economic topics. Her teaching portfolio includes the Economics of Education, Cost Benefit Analysis, and Introductory Micro and Macroeconomics. She also actively tutors all levels of math at the primary and secondary school level. Her education philosophy is one that focuses on learning and applying theoretical concepts — in a practical manner. Ms. Roth's research efforts focus on the application of economic theory in education funding and policy decisions, with an emphasis on education in emerging nations. Ms. Roth has served over 25 clients across a wide spectrum of industries and educational institutions, focusing on program, project, and change management; including cost benefit analysis and operational efficiency.

Ms. Roth received her Doctor of Philosophy (PhD), Educational Leadership and Policy, from the Ontario Institute for Studies and Education (OISE) at the University of Toronto. She holds a Master of Arts, Economics, from the University of Toronto and a Master of Education, Administration and Policy, from the Ontario Institute for Studies and Education (OISE) at the University of Toronto. She also holds a Bachelor of Arts, Honours Economics (Dean's Honours List) and a Bachelor of Mathematics, Co-Operative Program from the University of Waterloo.

Course Policies

Late Policy

Late assignments will be penalized at 10% per day, with the exception of documented medical illness.

Assignments will not be accepted five (5) days after the due date. Assignment Dropboxes will close 5 days after the due date.

University Policies

Submission Times

Please be aware that the University of Waterloo is located in the Eastern Time Zone (GMT or UTC-5 during standard time and UTC-4 during daylight saving time) and, as such, the time that your activities and/or assignments are due is based on this zone. If you are outside the Eastern Time Zone and require assistance with converting your time, please try the Ontario, Canada Time Converter.

Accommodation Due to Illness

If your instructor has provided specific procedures for you to follow if you miss assignment due dates, term tests, or a final examination, adhere to those instructions. Otherwise:

MISSED ASSIGNMENTS/TESTS/QUIZZES

Contact the instructor as soon as you realize there will be a problem, and preferably within 48 hours, but no more than 72 hours, have a medical practitioner complete a Verification of Illness Form.

Email a scanned copy of the Verification of Illness Form to your instructor. In your email to the instructor, provide your name, student ID number, and exactly what course activity you missed.

Further information regarding Management of Requests for Accommodation Due to Illness can be found on the Accommodation due to illness page.

MISSED FINAL EXAMINATIONS

If this course has a final exam and if you are unable to write a final examination due to illness, seek medical treatment and have a medical practitioner complete a Verification of Illness Form. Email a scanned copy to the Centre for Extended Learning (CEL) at extendedlearning@uwaterloo.ca within 48 hours of your missed exam. Make sure you include your name, student ID number, and the exam(s) missed. You will be REQUIRED to hand in the original completed form before you write the make-up examination.

After your completed Verification of Illness Form has been received and processed, you will be emailed your alternate exam date and time. This can take up to 2 business days. If you are within 150 km of Waterloo you should be prepared to write in Waterloo on the additional CEL exam dates. If you live outside the 150 km radius, CEL will work with you to make suitable arrangements.

Further information about Examination Accommodation Due to Illness regulations is available in the Undergraduate Calendar.

Academic Integrity

In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo community are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. If you have not already completed the online tutorial regarding academic integrity you should do so as soon as possible. Undergraduate students should see the Academic Integrity Tutorial and graduate students should see the Graduate Students and Academic Integrity website.

Proper citations are part of academic integrity. Citations in CEL course materials usually follow CEL style, which is based on APA style. Your course may follow a different style. If you are uncertain which style to use for an assignment, please confirm with your instructor or TA.

For further information on academic integrity, please visit the Office of Academic Integrity.

Discipline

A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity to avoid committing an academic offence, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration, should seek guidance from the course instructor, academic advisor, or the undergraduate Associate Dean. For information on categories of offences and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties, check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Appeals

A decision made or penalty imposed under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, (other than a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline, may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes he/she has a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Grievance

A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. When in doubt please be certain to contact the department’s administrative assistant who will provide further assistance.

Final Grades

In accordance with Policy 46 - Information Management, Appendix A - Access to and Release of Student Information, the Centre for Extended Learning does not release final examination grades or final course grades to students. Students must go to Quest to see all final grades. Any grades posted in Waterloo LEARN are unofficial.

AccessAbility Services

AccessAbility Services, located in Needles Hall, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodation to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with AccessAbility Services at the beginning of each academic term and for each course.

Accessibility Statement

The Centre for Extended Learning strives to meet the needs of all our online learners. Our ongoing efforts to become aligned with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act \(AODA\) are guided by University of Waterloo accessibility Legislation and policy and the World Wide Web Consortium's \(W3C\) Web Content Accessibility Guidelines \(WCAG\) 2.0.
