Course Evaluation

The course evaluation will consist of two (2) midterm tests and a final examination.

Exam	Date	Time	Weight
Midterm 1	Friday, May 27 th 2011	T.B.A.	25.0%
Midterm 2	Friday, June 24 th 2011	T.B.A.	25.0%
Final	Scheduled by the Registrar's Office		50.0%

Student Responsibilities Prior to Midterms

Students are responsible for attending lectures prior to midterm dates and checking

UW-ACE (click the Lessons tab and choose the folder Midterm Information) to confirm the chapters on each test.

Make-Up Policy

There is no deferred mid-term exam. Students who are unable to write a mid-term because of documented personal illness or other sufficient cause, will transfer the weight of that exam to the final. A student who misses a mid-term must go to see the instructor in person with an original document within 48 hours of the midterm exam. In the absence of sufficient cause, failure to write a mid-term will result in a grade of zero.

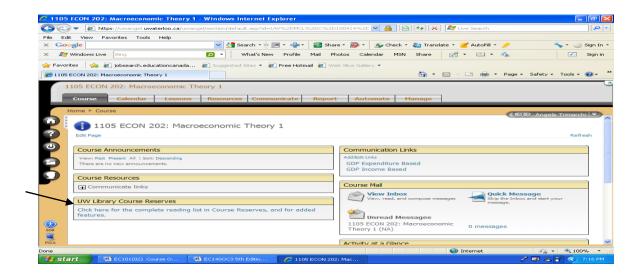

Deferred Exam Policy

Students are required to write the final exam during the final exam period. A student who misses the final exam, must petition to defer. The Deferred Exam Policy is listed on the Department of Economics website and may be accessed by clicking on the following link:

http://economics.uwaterloo.ca/DeferredExams.html

Course Reserves

The textbook and study guide are on reserve in the Dana Porter Library for a three (3) hour loan period. A description of the materials in Course Reserves along with the call number may be accessed directly from UW-ACE by clicking on the section "UW Library Course Reserves" (see sample diagram below).

Dealing with Plagiarism and Other Academic Offences:

Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo community are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about "rules" for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on the categories of offences and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline, http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy71.htm.

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 –

Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4, http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy70.htm.

Appeals: A student may appeal the finding and/or penalty in a decision made under Policy 70 – Student Petitions and Grievances (other than regarding a petition) or Policy 71 – Student Discipline if a ground for an appeal can be established. Read Policy 72 – Student Appeals, http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy71

Academic Integrity Website (Arts):

Academic Integrity Office (UW): http://uwaterloo.ca/academicintegrity

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities:

Note for students with disabilities. The Office for Persons with Disabilities (OPD), located in NH1132, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the OPD at the beginning of each academic term.

Cross-listed course:

Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which rubric it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science rubric.

Class Cancellations for the Spring 2011 Term:

I will be away Friday June 17th 2011 due to an off-campus commitment. The date of the make-up class will be posted on the Announcements page of UW-ACE. For students that can't attend the make-up class full lecture notes will be posted on UW-ACE. I will also try to make arrangements for audio-visual to record my lecture. The DVD of the make-up lecture will be available in the CHIP office located in MC1052 in the Media Resources Library.

Statutory Holidays during the Spring 2011 Term:

Please note the following calendar regulations: There will be no class on Monday, May $23^{rd} 2011$ – Victoria Day There will be no class on Friday, July $1^{st} 2011$ – University Holliday
