This course will be taught from a modular strategic perspective. Each stage/module of the course will make the participants react to strategic marketing stimuli through proactive participation. Students will be encouraged to apply methods and models that call for effective marketing actions that firms practice in the real time environment. Issues such as application of SWOT and PEST & LEC analysis, developing marketing portunities and strategies, managing the marketing process and channels, delivering practical marketing plans, and analyzing various case studies from Canadian Business, Fortune and Forbes will be important perspectives of the course.

Module Aims & Learning outcomes

On completion of the module participants will be better able to:

- Understand key principles, concepts and terms associated with marketing including the differences between services and goods marketing
- Understand the concept of the 8 Ps.
- Prepare a marketing plan that links strategy with tactics.
- Understand the core, supplementary and periphery concepts of marketing
- Understand competitive positioning with respect to customers and firms.

GREWAL: MARKETING 1ST CDN ED (available at the UW Book Store).

Grading Scheme:

1.	Class Participation (Includes attendance and participating in all activities of the class throughout the term)	15% Individual
a.	Preparation for Class Discussion/Participation: Your obligation as a Student in Econ 344: Develop a name tag with your first name (only) written in big letters that will be easy for you to display and for the instructor to see during every class. Class participation is 15% of your grade, and it is your responsibility to make sure that the instructor knows your name. If I do not know you and find you absent I WILL NOT assign the 15% marks. This is also directly related to your attendance in the class room.
b.	Attendance & Assignment Policy: STOP!! READ THIS PLEASE. Assignments, projects handed in late will not be accepted and a ZERO will be awarded. Any activity like presentations, debates/surprise product ads missed/absence will also be awarded a ZERO mark. Note: All assignments and Projects will be submitted as a hard copy. Electronic copies will not be accepted. Attendance is compulsory in all sessions. Any ONE Class not attended/missed will incur a 2 marks penalty per each class missed out of 100 marks from the course. Random attendance at the discretion of the Instructor will be taken. An exception to the above is only support through valid acceptable medical documentation as per university rules. No other exception will be made or accepted. Please do not bring me notes from parents as they are not acceptable to me.
С.	Review the course outline, all assignments, Project, Assigned Group Magazines (Case Studies) (available on UWACE). UWACE is the primary source for course updates, marking criteria, lecture notes, class cancellations and announcements. https://uwangel.uwaterloo.ca/uwangel/default.asp
d.	Format: Classroom activity will consist of lectures, videos, class discussions, in-class interactive exercises and role playing activities based on the assigned readings and case studies. Lectures will refer to, but not review, all material in the textbook. Students are expected to come to class having read all assigned readings (chapters, cases, articles) and ready to share and discuss. Discussions will focus on the application of concepts that are probing, extending and applying the material rather than reading or reviewing.
e.	Group Dynamics You have been divided into groups for the entire term [The same case study class groups will work on all activities requiring team work]. Group members may divide the responsibility for particular parts of the work and assign a part or parts to individual group members. Team spirit will be under observation. Groups should inform the instructor EARLY IN THE TERM if any group member does not adhere to group spirit. As an individual team member, your responsibilities include serving as a team leader and being a team player. If members are not cooperating amongst themselves, the instructor will mediate to solve the issue. If the issue still remains unresolved the instructor will penalize the non cooperating individual to the tune of 10 marks (out of total 100) provided the rest of the group members give a written consensus note. I am always willing to see my students and will go out of my way to schedule meetings. Please make sure that if you make an appointment that you keep it. (You can email me at anytime).

f.	Other and state and denotions and make the denotes and heat.
	Other special considerations or rules Student conduct:
	Disrupting the class by playing with laptops, browsing social media web pages, being sluggish, receiving and taking calls on cell phones and beepers, or engaging in conversations outside of the lecture is strongly discouraged.
	If you have a situation that does not allow you to arrive on time you should inform the course Instructor immediately. In any case since Econ 344 is an intensive group activity course I will allow only a 10 minute grace period to enter the class as late comers disrupt the rhythm of the discussion.	15% Individual

Important notes:

UWACE: It is expected that students access UWACE throughout the fall 2011 term course period for information on assignments, and for other relevant course material.

Part of the students mark is subjective, which is based on class participation.

Assignments and all other course activity:

Students are expected to check the appropriate UW websites for details concerning any examinations and various course drop deadlines (Please see: http://www.registrar.uwaterloo.ca/exams/finalexams.html and http://www.quest.uwaterloo.ca/undergraduate/dates.html respectively).

Students with disabilities:

Note for students with disabilities: The Office for Persons with Disabilities (OPD), located in Needles Hall, Room 1132, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the OPD at the beginning of each academic term.

Statement regarding travel and the final examination period: Please note that "Student travel plans are not considered acceptable grounds for granting an alternative make up time for any activity. For more information see: www.registrar.uwaterloo.ca/exams/finalexams.html

Audio/video recording: Classes may not be audio or video recorded, unless specified.

Expectation of Academic Integrity:

Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo community are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility.

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy #70, Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy70.htm

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offenses, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offense, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offenses (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about "rules" f or group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergrad uate Associate Dean. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Poli cy #71, Student Discipline, http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy71.htm

Students are responsible for understanding the expectations regarding whether any course activity is a group or individual initiative. Unless otherwise indicated the assumption is that course activities are individual efforts that feed into collective group activities.

Appeals: Concerning a decision made under Policy #70 (Student Petitions and Grievances) (other than petitions) or Policy #71 (Student Discipline) a student may appeal the finding, the penalty, or both. A student who believes he/she has a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy #72 (Student Appeals) http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy72.htm

Avoiding Academic Offences: www.arts.uwaterloo.ca/arts/ugrad/academic responsibility.html It is important for students to be aware that one may commit plagiarism inadvertently, through ignorance of appropriate citation methods, so checking this website prior to submitting a paper is to the students advantage.
