Prospectus Examination for _____ [student's name]

The Examination Committee has reached the following decision regarding the PhD thesis prospectus exam.

Passed

Passed subject to completion of recommendation

This means that a candidate's proposal and background preparation are generally adequate but certain deficiencies need to be rectified. The recommendation might require additional courses be completed, or a written report be prepared on designated aspects of the proposed research program. The specific recommendation must be clearly identified on the Examination Form, by the Chair, along with target dates and committee members responsible for ensuring the recommendations will be satisfied.

Decision deferred/re-examination required

This means that a candidate's proposal and/or background preparation is deficient. Re-examination cannot take place within six weeks after the date of the first exam. The re-examination date must be established by the supervisor(s) in consultation with the examiners and the candidate. A student who fails a re-examination will be required to withdraw from the PhD program.
