Course Description

The course deepens the discussion of consumer theory presented in Econ 201 using the mathematical tools acquired in Econ 211. Partial equilibrium models of labour markets and borrowing/saving by households are presented. Welfare measures are introduced that contribute to the evaluation of policy changes and taxes. The final portion of the course examines the allocative efficiency of competitive markets, studied using general equilibrium models. We will see how the presence of externalities can necessitate government intervention to ensure efficient outcomes.

Course Goals and Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

- A. Study portions of the applied microeconomic literature and follow courses that presume an intermediate preparation in microeconomic theory.
- B. Employ the tools of differential calculus (esp. constrained and unconstrained optimization) in developing microeconomic models.

Required Text

- Nechyba, Thomas J., 2011, Microeconomics: An Intuitive Approach with Calculus (South-Western Cengage Learning).

Several copies of the textbook are on reserve at the Dana Porter Library.

Readings Available on LEARN

- Lecture notes – pdf files contain statement of main results and problems/examples, to be used as template for taking notes during lecture;
- Announcements, assignments and their solutions, midterm solutions.

Missed Work and Accommodation Regarding Assessment

If a student is unable to take one midterm exam for documented reasons, the weight of the midterm will be shifted automatically to the final exam. If a student misses a second midterm for documented reasons, a make-up exam will be offered at an arranged time. Please note that students who decide to take an exam cannot be given accommodation after the fact due to illness or personal complicating factors that may have affected their performance. If you are not well on the day of an exam it is advisable that you not take the exam and obtain valid documentation of the circumstances of this decision.

Electronic Device Policy

To avoid disruptions to the learning environment handheld devices must be turned off during the lecture and laptops must be used strictly for lecture-related purposes. If a student's use of a laptop becomes a distraction for adjacent students that student will be asked to discontinue its use.

Attendance Policy

Lectures are an important component of the learning process and should be attended regularly.

Cross-listed course

Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which rubric it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science rubric.

Academic Integrity

Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. See the UWaterloo Academic Integrity webpage and the Arts Academic Integrity webpage for more information.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about "rules" for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. When in doubt, please be certain to contact the department's administrative assistant who will provide further assistance.

Appeals: A decision made or penalty imposed under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes he/she has a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

Note for students with disabilities: The AccessAbility Services office, located on the first floor of the Needles Hall extension (1401), collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS office at the beginning of each academic term.
