

University of Waterloo
Department of Economics
ECON 254-001: The Economics of Sport
Course Outline – Spring Term 2022

Instructor Information

Instructor: Corey Van de Waal

Office: HH403 Home.

Website: <http://economics.uwaterloo.ca/corey-van-de-waal>

Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/accidentaleconomist/>

Class Meets: Asynchronously.

Classroom: online.

Email: chvandew@uwaterloo.ca

When sending email to your instructor, always use your University of Waterloo email account. “ECON 254” must appear in the subject line and the message must include your full name and student ID number.

Office Hours and Other Support Resources

Virtual Office hours:

Tuesdays from 12:00pm – 1:00pm eastern on Virtual Classroom.

Thursdays from 12:30pm – 1:00pm eastern on Virtual Classroom.

(Starts May 10th and ends July 26th).

If these office hours are not convenient for you, I am also available by arranging a mutually convenient appointment via e-mail.

Office hours are the appropriate venue for asking questions about the material from the course. Email is an inefficient method for communicating detailed course content. I will not respond to questions requiring detailed explanations other than during the virtual office hours. Office hours for the Final Exam Period will be announced in July.

Where to find this course outline:

This course outline is available at two locations for the duration of the term:

- Department of Economics website <http://economics.uwaterloo.ca>
- LEARN web site (requires UW user id and password) <http://learn.uwaterloo.ca>

Brief Summary

The course will develop fundamental economic concepts in the context of the sports industry. We will limit our attention primarily (but not exclusively) to the consideration of the four major North American leagues: the NHL, NBA, NFL, and MLB.

The course is divided into five major sections.

First, we will familiarize ourselves with the economic size of the sports industry and consider some of the history of the four major North American sports. We review the demand and supply model in the sports context. It is essential to develop the economic toolbox necessary for use in the subsequent course materials.

In the second section of the course, we investigate potential methods for modelling sports performance. The analytics portion of the course begins with a study of econometric methods followed by performance measures, profit maximization, and game theory.

Next, we will consider some of the fundamental aspects of the business of sports. The business structure of several sports is discussed, and we introduce fantasy sports, sports betting, and e-sports. The section ends with an investigation of competitive balance and competitive balance measures.

In the penultimate section, we will examine the labour economics of sports, focusing on the labour-leisure model, unions, and collective bargaining.

Finally, we will briefly examine the public economics of sports. We will look at how and why cities spend public money on professional sports teams.

Prerequisite: ECON 101.

Course Goals and Learning Objectives

At the end of the course, students should be able to

- apply elements of microeconomic theory to understand how consumers and producers make rational decisions in the sports industry.
- apply theoretical understanding to problems faced in sports markets.
- use applied economic techniques to analyze conceptual problems faced by agents in sports markets.

Textbook, Coursenotes, and Other Resources

LECTURE SLIDES

I will be posting summary notes relating to each week's lecture material on LEARN. These notes are intended to briefly highlight key learning objectives. Your main source of study material will be the textbook and the lecture slides.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK

Van de Waal, Corey. Economics and the Sports Industry: Theory and Applications. Dubuque: Kendall Hunt Publishing, 2021.

Examinations in this course are based on the material contained in the textbook readings and presented as lecture content (which are all strong complements, not substitutes).

Readings Available on LEARN

As mentioned, I will be posting the lecture slides on LEARN before each class. It is your responsibility to keep yourself current with the assigned textbook readings as well as maintaining an understanding of the lecture slide content.

- Any additional course materials (news, updates, announcements) will be posted on the LEARN web site <http://learn.uwaterloo.ca>
- The LEARN site is down occasionally. Save the course materials to your computer as soon as they are posted. Always be prepared!
- Students writing test and exams are responsible to save course materials on LEARN before the access to their courses is shut off (normally on the first day of classes of the next term).

Course Requirements and Assessment

The two individual assignments in this course will collectively be worth 30% (15% each) of your final grade. The midterm will be written on the date specified below and the results will be worth 30% of your final grade. The final exam will constitute 40% of your final grade and will be comprehensive (i.e., cover all course material from beginning to end).

The course grade will be based on the weighted sum of the two assignments, the midterm exam, and the final examination which will be held during the Official Examination Schedule. The breakdown is as follows:

| Assessment | Date of Evaluation | Weighting |
|--------------|---------------------------|-------------|
| Assignment 1 | June 9 | 15% |
| Assignment 2 | July 21 | 15% |
| Midterm | June 13 | 30% |
| Final Exam | TBA (July 29 – August 13) | 40% |
| Total | | 100% |

Notes

- The format for the midterm and the final exam will be a potential mix of multiple-choice questions and written problems.
- The final exam period for the Spring Term 2022 is July 29 – August 13 inclusive. Students are expected to be available during this time. Travel plans are not acceptable grounds for granting an alternative final examination time.

<http://uwaterloo.ca/registrar/final-examinations/examination-regulations-and-related-matters>

- The exact date and time for the final exam for this class will be determined by the Registrar's Office. The exam schedule will be posted online and posted on LEARN.
- Only the Registrar's Office can issue final grades.

This grading scheme will be implemented strictly for all students in the course (except for verified illnesses – see below).

Examination Policy

Missing a Midterm Due to Illness during the Term

- Missing a midterm will automatically result in a grade of zero for that midterm. If the illness can be documented with a UW Verification of Illness Form (the only acceptable document), with approval you may transfer the weight of the missed midterm to the final exam. This remedy is a privilege and not a right.
- The midterm exam schedule has been set and will not be changed for whatever reason (no make-up midterm exams will be offered).

Missing the Final Exam Due to Illness

- Missing the final exam is a very serious matter which automatically results in a grade of zero for the final exam and possibly a failing grade for the course. Please carefully read the Economics Department policy on deferred final exams for instructions.
- No deferred final exam will be provided for students who missed all the exams (including the final exam) in this course.

Submission of Exam Papers

- Late submission of exam papers is not accepted and missed submissions will receive a zero mark for whatever reason.
- Exam papers must be submitted in whole and on time. Exam papers
 - (a) not submitted on time,
 - (b) submitted with missing pages,
 - (c) submitted elsewhere, except for students with permission to write in the AS Office,
 - (d) not received at allwill receive a grade of zero for whatever reason.
- It is the responsibility of students to ensure that they write exams in the location, date, and time assigned to their section. Students writing exams in the wrong section will be assessed a 20% penalty on the final exam grade. There will be no accommodation for possible differences in exam material or content.

Policy on Missed/Late Assignments and Tests

Any assignment that is not submitted by the date and time at which this assignment is due will not be marked and will receive a grade of zero. If you miss the assignment due date due to illness and therefore cannot submit your assignment, it will be accepted for grading if and only if accompanied by a relevant medical certificate.

No make-up tests will be provided for the midterm exams. Students who miss a midterm and do not have a relevant medical certificate will receive a mark of zero. Students with a valid medical certificate will have the weight of the midterm added to their final exam. If a student misses the final exam, the resulting procedure is outlined in the Economics department's Deferred Final Exam Policy, <https://uwaterloo.ca/economics/undergraduate/resources-and-policies/deferred-final-exam-policy>

Topics covered

- Toolbox Development
- Sports Analytics
- The Business of Sport

Intellectual Property

Students should be aware that this course contains the intellectual property of their instructor, TA, and/or the University of Waterloo. Intellectual property includes items such as:

- Lecture content, spoken and written (and any audio/video recording thereof).
- Lecture handouts, presentations, and other materials prepared for the course (e.g., PowerPoint slides).
- Questions or solution sets from various types of assessments (e.g., assignments, quizzes, tests, final exams); and
- Work protected by copyright (e.g., any work authored by the instructor or TA or used by the instructor or TA with permission of the copyright owner).

Course materials and the intellectual property contained therein, are used to enhance a student's educational experience. However, sharing this intellectual property without the intellectual property owner's permission is a violation of intellectual property rights. For this reason, it is necessary to ask the instructor, TA and/or the University of Waterloo for permission before uploading and sharing the intellectual property of others online (e.g., to an online repository).

Permission from an instructor, TA or the University is also necessary before sharing the intellectual property of others from completed courses with students taking the same/similar courses in subsequent terms/years. In many cases, instructors might be happy to allow distribution of certain materials. However, doing so without expressed permission is considered a violation of intellectual property rights.

Please alert the instructor if you become aware of intellectual property belonging to others (past or present) circulating, either through the student body or online. The intellectual property rights owner deserves to know (and may or may not have already given their consent).

Institutional-required statements for undergraduate course outlines approved by Senate Undergraduate Council, April 14, 2009.

Cross-listed course

Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which rubric it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science rubric.

Academic Integrity

Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. See the UWaterloo Academic Integrity webpage and the Arts Academic Integrity webpage for more information.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. When in doubt, please be certain to contact the department’s administrative assistant who will provide further assistance.

Appeals: A decision made or penalty imposed under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes he/she has a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

Note for students with disabilities: The AccessAbility Services office, located on the first floor of the Needles Hall extension (1401), collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS office at the beginning of each academic term.

If you are using Turnitin® in your course

Turnitin.com: Text matching software (Turnitin®) will be used to screen assignments in this course. This is being done to verify that use of all material and sources in assignments is documented. Students will be given an option if they do not want to have their assignment screened by Turnitin®. In the first week of the term, details will be provided about arrangements and alternatives for the use of Turnitin® in this course.

Note: students must be given a reasonable option if they do not want to have their assignment screened by Turnitin®. See guidelines for instructors for more information.

Mental Health Support

All of us need a support system. The faculty and staff in Arts encourage students to seek out mental health supports if they are needed.
