Course Outline

This course outline will be available at two locations for the duration of the term:

1. Department of Economics website
2. LEARN website

Course Description

This course provides an introduction to macroeconomic analysis relevant for understanding the Canadian economy as a whole. The determinants of national output, the unemployment rate, the price level (inflation), interest rates, the money supply and the balance of payments, and the role of government fiscal and monetary policy are the main topics covered.

Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

- Describe the basic macroeconomic variables.
- Understand the models that determine the basic macroeconomic variables.
- Distinguish between the long run and the short run.
- Understand how the government and the central bank can influence outcomes in the economy.
- Understand current macroeconomic events.

Required Text

- Parkin, M. and R. Bade, Macroeconomics Canada In the Global Environment, 9th Canadian Edition. Toronto: Pearson, 2016.

Optional Study Guide

- Cohen, Avi J. and Harvey B. King, Macroeconomics, Flex Text. Toronto: Pearson, 2017.

Additional Resources Available on LEARN

The PPT overhead slides are posted on LEARN at: 1179, ECON 102, Fall 2017

- The LEARN site is down occasionally. Download the slides to your computer. Always be prepared!
- Students writing tests and exams are responsible for saving course materials on Learn before the access to their courses is shut off (normally on the first day of classes of the next term).

Notes from the UW Bookstore

The UW Book Store has the following editions of the same textbook package (buy only one):

- Option 1: Macroeconomics (Paperback) Textbook, MyEconLab & FlexText ($159.95 + GST)
- Option 2: Macroeconomics (Loose leaf) Binder Ready Textbook, MyEconLab & FlexText ($99.95 + GST).

Students who will be taking both ECON 101 and 102 (this term or in a subsequent term) may want to get the combined Economics: Canada in the Global Environment which has both Microeconomics (ECON 101) and Macroeconomics (ECON 102). In that case, the UW Book Store also has the following editions of the same text package (buy only one):

ECON 101 and 102

- Option 3: Economics (Hardcover) Textbook with MyEconLab including Micro and Macro flexText bundle ($189.95 + GST),
- Option 4: Microeconomics and Macroeconomics (Looseleaf) bundle with MyEconLab and including Micro and Macro flexText ($169.95 + GST).

In any case, buy only one of the four options above. The textbook is packaged with a free access code to MyEconLab (including e-textbook), and a flexText. If you would like to purchase MyEconLab separately (with or without the e-textbook), please contact the UW Book Store.

Final Exam	Comprehensive	TBA (between Dec 7 – Dec. 21)	50%
Total			100%

Notes

- The format for both term tests and the final exam will be multiple choice questions.
- The term tests will be written in class time.
- Term test grades will be posted on Learn.
- The final exam period for Fall Term 2017 is December 7 to December 21 inclusive. Students are expected to be available during this time. Travel plans are not acceptable grounds for granting an alternative final examination time. (See Registrar's Office Examinations and Related Matters)
- The date and time for the final exam will be determined by the Registrar's Office.
- The final exam schedule is posted online, will be announced in class, and posted on LEARN.
- Only the Registrar's Office can issue final grades

Examination Policy

Missing a Midterm Due to Illness During the Term

- Missing a midterm will automatically result in a grade of zero for that midterm. If the illness can be documented with a UW Verification of Illness Form (the only acceptable document), with approval you may transfer the weight of the missed midterm to the final exam. This remedy is a privilege and not a right.
- Immediately upon your return, please deliver to me a hard copy of your medical document.
- The midterm schedule is set and will not be changed for any reason.

Missing the Final Exam Due to Illness

- Missing the final exam is a very serious matter which automatically results in a grade of zero for the final exam and possibly a failing grade for the course. Please carefully read the Economics Department policy on deferred final exams for instructions.
- No deferred final exam will be provided for students who missed all the exams (including the final exam) in this course. Deferred Final Exam Policy.

Submission of Exam Papers

- Late submission of exam papers is not accepted and missed submissions will receive a grade of zero for whatever reason.
- Exam papers must be submitted in whole and on time in the exam room. Exam papers
(a) not submitted on time,
(b) submitted with missing pages,
(c) submitted elsewhere, with the exception of students with permission to write in the AS Office,
(d) or not received at all
will receive a grade of zero for whatever reason.
- It is the responsibility of students to ensure that they write exams in the location, date, and time assigned to their section. Students writing exams in the wrong section will be assessed a 20%

penalty on the final exam grade. There will be no accommodation for possible differences in exam material or content.

Fee-Arranged Issues

Students are responsible for administrative matters concerning their course registration including fee arrangements. No make-up work or other remedies will be given for loss of access to LEARN and academic consequences arising from administrative issues with the Registrar's Office.

Electronic Device Policy

- THIS IS A HANDHELD-DEVICE-FREE ZONE.
- Turn off all handheld devices and put them away for the duration of the lecture.
- Laptop computers may only be used to view lecture material.
- Photographic devices are not permitted in class due to copyright and privacy issues.
- Audio or video recording devices are not permitted in class due to copyright and privacy concerns.

Attendance Policy

Class attendance is an integral part of the course. Although attendance is not formally taken, it is critical for understanding the course material. Students are responsible for all material covered whether they choose to attend lectures or not.

Classroom Protocols

- I do NOT lend my lecture notes to students for any reason.
- In order to maintain a learning environment in this classroom, I expect the highest level of courtesy and professional behavior from every student. In particular, be punctual and turn off all audible ringers on all devices during class.
- As a courtesy to others, no eating in class please. If you have coffee, water, etc., please dispose of your garbage when you leave the classroom.
- No private conversations in class will be tolerated

Institutional-required statements for undergraduate course outlines approved by Senate Undergraduate Council, April 14, 2009

Cross-listed course

Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which rubric it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science rubric.

Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. See the UWaterloo Academic Integrity Webpage \(https://uwaterloo.ca/academic-integrity/\) and the Arts Academic Integrity Office Webpage \(http://arts.uwaterloo.ca/current-undergraduates/academic-responsibility\) for more information.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offenses, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offense, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offenses (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, including writing exams in a section that you are not registered in, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties \(http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/guidelines/penaltyguidelines.htm\).

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. In addition, read the Student Grievance Process for the Faculty of Arts.

Appeals: A student may appeal the finding and/or penalty in a decision made under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than regarding a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline if a ground for an appeal can be established. Read Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

Note for students with disabilities: The AccessAbility Services office, located in Needles Hall Room 1132, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS office at the beginning of each academic term.

Mental Health Support

All of us need a support system. The faculty and staff in Arts encourage students to seek out mental health supports if they are needed.
