

University of Waterloo

WATERLOO ECONOMICS WORKSHOP

Friday April 6, 2018, 9am - 5pm

Current Challenges in Environmental & Natural Resource Economics

Hassan Bencheekroun (McGill University)

OPEC, Shale Oil, and Global Warming – On the importance of the order of extraction

Margaret Insley (University of Waterloo)

Strategic interactions and uncertainty in decisions to curb greenhouse gas emissions

Andrew Leach (University of Alberta)

Carbon pricing, resource royalties, and emissions

Charles Mason (University of Wyoming)

Infrastructure Issues in Hydrocarbon Markets

Lucija Muehlenbachs (University of Calgary)

Politics and the Strategic Release of News at the EPA

Martino Pelli (Université de Sherbrooke)

Roads and Resources: Groundwater Depletion in the North China Plains

Workshop location:

University of Waterloo

Environment & Information Technology (EIT) 1015

For more information:

<https://uwaterloo.ca/economics/events/2018-waterloo-economics-workshop>

Thanks to the Global Risk Institute and the Department of Economics,
University of Waterloo for generous financial support.