Master's Thesis Committee Guidelines

In the case of a Master's program involving a thesis, one copy of the thesis is required for each member of the Reading Committee. The Committee shall be comprised of:

- At least one tenured or tenure track faculty member of the student's home department who will normally be the student's supervisor(s)
- An additional tenured or tenure track faculty member from the University of Waterloo
- At least one additional examiner whose expertise can support the evaluation of the Master's thesis
- No more than one adjunct faculty member (including Professors Emeriti) may serve on the Examining Committee.

If your department or school requires an external examiner for your thesis the following guidelines apply:

- The external examiner must not currently be associated with the University of Waterloo (such as a lecturer)
- The external examiner must be knowledgeable in the field of the candidates research
- The external examiner must be arms length from the candidates supervisor

If the committee varies from the parameters outlined in the Graduate Studies calendar (noted above), the Associate Chair/Graduate Officer must provide rationale for the alternate committee makeup to eng.masters@uwaterloo.ca.
