Tuition fees listed are for full-time studies and include diagnostic testing and course instruction. Please contact eli@uwaterloo.ca for information on available EFAS part-time course options and fees.

Additional cost for textbooks may apply (approximately $100 per term). Students can purchase textbooks at the start of the program.

The University Health Insurance Plan (UHIP) is mandatory for international students in Canada. Dependents (spouse and/or children) of international students must also be enrolled in UHIP upon arrival in Canada for an additional cost. If you are a returning student, please check your UHIP fee amount by emailing eli@uwaterloo.ca.

The student services fee includes:

- Student identification card
- Access to on-campus recreation facilities at the University of Waterloo
- On-campus social events and activities organized by Renison ELI Peer Leaders
- EFAS academic excursion (Fall, Winter and Spring terms only)
- Grand River Transit pass

Cancellation and deferral policy: The $200 application fee is non-refundable. Tuition deposits are non-transferable and refundable only for students whose visa or study permit application has been denied. If this happens to you, we will refund your tuition deposit if you send official proof by the first day of the program that your visa or study permit application has been denied. If you have not yet arrived in Canada, you can defer your studies one time without penalty if we receive your deferral request by the first day of the program. Normally, deferral requests will not be granted for students who have already arrived in Canada. Official proof of visa/study permit refusal and/or a deferral request must be received by the first day of the program or your tuition deposit is forfeited. Once a term has begun, you can withdraw in writing from a course or courses up until the Friday of the first week of classes, and be refunded 90% of your remaining tuition (less the deposit). All other fees are non-refundable. After this date, refunds will not be issued. The English Language Institute reserves the right to cancel any program because of insufficient registration. You will be refunded any fees paid for a cancelled program.
