GENERAL ACCOUNTABILITY

The Intensive Bridge to Academic Success in English (iBASE) program is UWaterloo’s intensive seven-week English language foundation program that helps students improve their skills in reading, writing, and speaking English before they begin their degree in Arts, Applied Health Sciences, Engineering, Environment, or Science.

The Renison English Language Institute is recruiting a team of two (2) upper-year students to serve as iBASE Peer Leaders from July to August 2019. These student staff will work 8-10 hours per week. Hours will vary depending on times when iBASE students are not in class, including lunches, evenings, and occasional weekends.

iBASE Peer Leaders must exhibit strong mentorship skills and facilitation experience. They must have a desire and passion for helping first-year international students and English Language Learners, and must have working knowledge of the needs of these students. They must be positive role models both personally and academically, and exhibit awareness and knowledge of strategies for academic and personal success. They must be in good academic standing.

Preference will be given to students with international or cross-cultural experience, and/or additional language competencies. Given that a high percentage of iBASE students plan to continue in Engineering, candidates enrolled in an Engineering program will be considered an asset. However, students from all Faculties are welcome to apply. This position is ideal for senior undergraduate students with a strong knowledge of campus services and resources, student leadership experience, and a good understanding of the first-year international student experience.

This position receives operational direction from the Student Experience Manager but will work alongside a Student Advisor and Student Experience Coordinator.

NATURE & SCOPE

The position of iBASE Peer Leader requires the ability to provide guidance and support to our students related to their academic, cultural, social, and interpersonal transition into the University of Waterloo.

- Interpersonal Contacts: this position requires the incumbent to work collaboratively with a team of one other iBASE Peer Leaders, Student Experience Coordinator, a Student Advisor, and the Manager, Student Experience. The successful candidate must possess excellent interpersonal and mentorship skills in order to carefully understand, assess, and recommend supports and resources to support students in their personal and academic success.

- Decision-Making Authority: this position possesses decision-making authority based on established policy and procedure; complex and non-routine issues involve consultation with appropriate personnel. Required to investigate issues and provide explanation or suggestions as able.
Level of Responsibility: this role has defined duties and responsibilities and receives direct supervision. The iBASE Peer Leader will be responsible for coordinating social and educational event programming with students in our language programs, and conducting regular one-on-one success coaching meetings with our students. Additionally, some guidance and support is provided to students regarding their academic, cultural, social, and interpersonal transition into the University of Waterloo. There are no direct reports. Job challenges include a thorough understanding of cross-cultural awareness and an understanding of available resources in order to provide support to ensure student success.

Physical and Sensory Demands: working in an office environment with the majority of time standing or sitting with some computer use. Some physical work as may be required when preparing for workshops or special events.
