English 102B

The Major Forms of Literature: Short Stories and Drama

Time:        MWF 10:30
Place:       HH 139
Professor:   Dr. J.S. North
Office hours: HH 223, MWF 1:30-2:30, 3:30-5:00 or by apptmmt
(Normally I am in my office T & R, 9:30-5:30)
Texts:       Roberts & Jacobs, ed., Literature; An Introduction to Reading and Writing
              Defoe, Daniel, Robinson Crusoe (Penguin)
              Dickens, Charles, A Tale of Two Cities (Penguin)
              Lewis, C.S., The Horse and His Boy (Harper Collins)
              Thomas, W. K., Correct Form in Essay Writing

Purpose:
We will study poetry and the novel to determine how the shape of a work contributes to its meaning. We will also consider library research methods, and some of the principles of good essay writing.

Assignments:
Reading:    About 4 pages per lecture in poetry, 70 in novel.
Writing:    Essay 1       Feb 2        20 marks
            Mid Term      Feb 16      20
            Essay 2       Mar 16      30
            Exam          Mar 16      30