

Faculty Association of the University of Waterloo

Standing for academic freedom, equity, and collegial governance since 1957.

special membership form for librarians and AFIW/non-regular faculty

What is FAUW?

FAUW is the official representative of regular faculty members at UWaterloo. We negotiate compensation and terms of employment, provide confidential support, and defend members' individual and collective rights. Should you find yourself facing any difficulty at work, we're here to help. Learn more about us at uwaterloo.ca/fauw.

Who can join?

Membership is open to all regular faculty (whom FAUW already represents) and other faculty members and professional librarians at the University of Waterloo and affiliated university colleges. When you join, you will have a vote in the Association, and can represent your colleagues on our Board of Directors and committees.

Please return this form to the Faculty Association in MC 4001 to join.

I hereby elect to become a member of the Faculty Association of the University of Waterloo and agree to be bound by its Constitution. I authorize the University to deduct from my salary and remit to the Faculty Association on my behalf the amount of any Association dues payable* starting on the first of the month following today's date.

FAUW fees are based on a mil rate of 0.525% of member's base salary, charged on a monthly basis and rounded to the nearest five cents. CAUT and OCUFA membership fees are included. Part-time members are only charged the CAUT and OCUFA part-time fees x 1.5.*
