CALL TO ORDER

The regular meeting of Students’ Council assembled at 12:30 in the SLC MPR. Speaker Alexander Wray took the Chair, and Sacha Forstner acted as Secretary. The Chair verified the meeting was properly constituted in accordance with the Corporation’s bylaws, policies, and procedures, that due notice had been given to all members, and that a quorum was present.

The Chair called the meeting to order at 12:38.

I. APPROVAL OF THE AGENDA

Council heard a motion to approve the agenda for the meeting as circulated.

Lolas and Spira.

Wiley and Lolas move to amend the agenda such that reports precede the presentation from the Ontario Undergraduate Student Alliance, and the OUSA policy discussion immediately follows the presentation.

The Chair sought and found unanimous consent for the amendment.

The question was called on the primary motion as amended, and it carried.

II. CONSENT AGENDA

Council heard a motion to approve all items on the consent agenda, including:

1. The minutes from the October 16 2016 Council meeting;
2. All submitted reports;
3. A motion to task the Policies and Procedures Committee with developing revisions to Feds Policy 24 in accordance with feedback received from Councillors.

President Lolas clarified that any revisions made to Policy 24 by the PPC would be brought back to Council for final approval.
Brieva and Qaoud. Carried.

III. REPORTS

President Lolas
The Annual General Meeting was unable to achieve quorum. The Board is currently discussing strategies for achieving quorum reliably in the future. FOC hiring has been completed for Orientation 2017. Feds was recently in Ottawa lobbying the federal government, and met with over 60 politicians and staffers.

Councillors asked questions regarding the General Meeting’s quorum failure, noting that the March meeting tends to achieve quorum reliably. Lolas responded that a written report is being prepared for Board, but noted his suspicions that the poor timing of the October meeting may be a factor.

Councillors requested a follow-up regarding the status of the proposed university policy on sexual violence prevention. Lolas informed Council that the policy passed, but the corresponding protocols have had their approval deferred due to minor concerns involving faculty-related processes.

Councillors asked about the way forward for the recommendations in the submitted reports from the Fall referendum committees. Lolas confirmed that the Research and Policy Officer is currently reviewing the recommendations, and the Policies and Procedures Committee will be proposing revisions at a future Council meeting.

Councillors expressed concerns about the brevity of the President’s written report to Council. Lolas responded that much of the work this month has been devoted to day-to-day operational matters, and cited the importance of keeping the report confined to high-level issues.

Vice President Internal Priori
The colleges survey has concluded. Preliminary results indicate that the main knowledge gap exists with respect to the Feds commercial services. Wrap-up week is underway, and events are thus far well-attended. Feds hosted a panel at the Centre for Innovation in Campus Mental Health conference, on the topic of promoting wellness on campus.

Councillors expressed minor concerns about the ability of Feds’ events to meet the volume of demand for them. Priori responded that wellness-based events are targeted to weeks that students are under the most stress, and affirmed that Feds is always exploring ways to accommodate the growing number of participants.

Vice President Operations and Finance Schwan
No report was delivered at this meeting, but Councillors were encouraged to refer to the written report, and to participate in the nightlife survey at survey.feds.ca.

Vice President Education Wiley
Recently, Feds sent a delegation to the Ontario Undergraduate Student Alliance’s Fall General Assembly, where three papers were passed.
The Education Advisory Committee passed a stance on Saturday Midterms, as per its submitted report.

Progress has been made on student housing efforts, including questions asked in the legislature by Waterloo MPPs, and a letter written to Minister Ballard at Feds’ request by the University President, which received a tepid response.

Along with seven other U15 schools, Feds recently travelled to Ottawa to lobby on issues of undergraduate research and indigenous access to PSE.

Councillors asked questions regarding specific provincial policy priorities regarding student housing. Wiley responded that Feds is aiming for a review of the Residential Tenancies Act in order to protect tenants pre-occupancy and to streamline and empower the Landlord Tenant Board. The current challenge is putting the issue on the policy agenda at all.

Councillors asked for an update regarding International Tuition. Wiley responded that efforts to lobby the University have gone well, and a positive announcement is expected in the near future.

Speaker Wray

The Speaker drew Councillors’ attention to the report on attendance circulated with the agenda. It was confirmed that, of the three Councillors with two unexcused absences, two had illness-related reasons for their absences, and have since been excused. However, Councillor Mistry’s absences have not been excused, and thus he remains up for removal as per Council Procedure 9 and Section 12 of the Federation of Students’ Bylaws.

Council heard a motion to remove Councillor Harsh Mistry from his seat pursuant to Section 12 of the Bylaws.

Armstrong and Tran.

Councillor Mistry spoke in his own defence, citing the fact that he was on coop in the Spring outside of the travel bubble, and efforts made to reach out to constituents and contribute to Council activities in spite of the distance.

The question was called via secret ballot, and the motion failed.

IV. SPECIAL ORDER – PRESENTATION BY THE ONTARIO UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT ALLIANCE

Council received a presentation from Zak Rose and Jamie Cleary, Executive Director and President (respectively) of the Ontario Undergraduate Student Alliance (OUSA).

OUSA is a non-profit in which Feds holds membership and a voting Board seat. Other than Waterloo, its other members include the undergraduate student unions from Brock University, Laurentian University, McMaster University, Queens University, Trent University – Durham, and Western University. OUSA is a government relations organization that operates on the principles of student-driven operations, evidence-based research and policy, easy membership, and full member autonomy. Its core activities involve research, policy development, and sector-wide lobbying of the Ontario Government, with which it maintains a high profile. All OUSA advocacy is based on the principles of accessibility, affordability, accountability, and quality, and only occurs based on OUSA’s established policies passed by its student members. The advocacy process uses proven government relations practices intended to produce results. It is governed by a student Board of Directors, which meets monthly, a General Assembly which meets twice a year to approve policy, and a Home Office staff of five that conduct research, maintain lobbying relationships, and produce OUSA’s publications.

Rose and Cleary updated Council on OUSA’s recent achievements, including: OUAC and eInfo updates, OSAP modernization, the OSG creation, tuition regulation, and a $12 million MHIF extension. OUSA is currently participating in negotiations regarding the new tuition framework, advising the Funding Formula Reporting Team, and sitting on the boards of various government agencies and affiliates, including the CICMH, the eCampus Ontario Student Advisory Committee, the ONCAT Student Advisory Committee, and the Sexual Violence Reporting Advisory Committee. Priorities for the year include oversight of OSG implementation, the new tuition framework, data collection & reporting, student supports and services improvement, sexual violence prevention & response, and Work Integrated Learning Expansion.

Councillors asked questions regarding: data collection, OUSA’s priorities regarding student financial aid, and specific policy issues regarding ancillary fees and sexual violence prevention. Current discussions regarding data collection are in relation to what can be done to collect and report all categories of data efficiently. Regarding the now-defunct tax credits, OUSA previously identified three core problems, specifically their extreme underuse, their non-refundable status for those who didn’t make enough to pay taxes, and the fact they were considered a form of student financial aid despite not being means-tested. Extensive research indicated that the vast majority of students – particularly students in financial need situations – would gain substantively if the credits were repurposed to direct financial aid. The Government accepted this course of action with the creation of the Ontario Student Grant, and OUSA is currently scrutinizing the implementation of that grant going forward. Regarding the policy questions, OUSA highlighted its belief in a transparent, accountable framework for fees, and its general commitment to developing sound policy based on evidence.

Council was encouraged to bring further questions to Vice President Wiley. Students wishing to get involved in OUSA may contribute by writing posts for the OUSA blog, participating in the #myWILis campaign, and applying to attend the General Assembly in March.

Wray yields the Chair to Vice President Priori with Council’s consent, and leaves the meeting.

Forstner yields primary secretarial responsibility to Assistant Secretary Nauth.

V. OUSA POLICY DISCUSSION

Councillor Mistry led a discussion regarding the Ontario Student Grant, noting that most of his questions and concerns regarding the grant had been addressed during the earlier presentation. A Councillor asked whether OUSA lobbied against tax credits for coop students and employers, and was informed that is not the case.
Councillors noted that the OUSA policies regarding student financial aid were primarily authored by representatives from Feds, including the previous VP Education. It was noted that Feds usually gets the things it asks for from OUSA, and subsequently suggested that there may be a benefit to later discussions regarding the process by which advocacy priorities are set within Feds.

_Nauth yields primary secretarial responsibility to Secretary Forstner._

VI. CENSURE OF THE PRESIDENT

Council heard a motion to censure President Lolas based on his actions following the referendum on the WPIRG fee.

Mistry and Clarke.

The Secretary provided background information for Councillors regarding the meaning and general purpose of a censure.

Councillor Mistry presented his motion, citing a perceived lack of action by the President following the recent referendum, and the announcement that the WPIRG fee will not be removed from students’ fee statements until the Spring term, rather than the Winter one.

President Lolas spoke in his own defence, noting that he has been in contact with many senior university administrators, who have all insisted there is not enough time to remove the fee for the Winter. Based on his experience, he informed Council that nobody else could have achieved an alternate result.

Councillors discussed the motion. It was noted by some that even if there was more the President might have been able to do, that might not be a reason to censure. Others pointed out that the issue at hand may be one of miscommunication or the lack of communication, rather than mismanagement. Councillors asked for and were provided with clarification regarding the standard process for fee changes.

_Dobrik and Abramovitch move to call the question. Carried unanimously._

_The question was called, and the motion failed._
Noted opposition: _Clarke, Fuentes Valdez, Potter, Sucholutsky._
Noted abstention: _Mistry._

_Lolas and Gerrits move to recess for five minutes. Carried._

_Council recesses from 14:39 until 14:49._

VII. APPOINTMENT OF THE ELECTIONS & REFERENDA OFFICER

Council heard a motion to ratify the appointment of Reba Nauth as Elections & Referenda Officer for the 2017 General Election, pursuant to Council Procedure 10.
Lolas and Abramovitch. Carried.

VIII. GENERAL ELECTION DATES 2017

Council heard a motion to set the dates for the 2017 election as presented in the agenda.

Lolas and Wiley.

President Lolas explained that the dates previously set by Council may not be used since those dates required bylaw changes that were not ratified by the Annual General Meeting due to the meeting’s lack of quorum.

Councillors asked questions regarding the promotion of the election dates and the timing of the elections debates. Lolas committed to attempts to maximize elections engagement.

The question was called, and the motion carried.

IX. GENERAL MEETING PROXIES

Council heard a motion to recommend that the Board amend the bylaws to allow Councillors to carry multiple proxy votes at General Meetings of the Corporation.

Clarke and Armstrong.

Councillor Clarke noted the recent General Meeting’s failure to take place, and suggested his motion would allow Councillors, as representatives, to ensure that far more student voices were heard in a way that preserves proportionality between Faculties. He noted that certain Faculties are often underrepresented at General Meetings, and suggested his motion as a potential solution.

Councillors expressed concerns with the motion, noting the risk of selection bias by Councillors, and the difficulty of tracking proxies. Attention was drawn to the more general problem of low student engagement in general meetings, and it was suggested that remote participation and after-the-fact voting could be effective.

Mistry and Melanson move to amend the motion to change “student councillors” to “students” and to delete “for students within their constituencies.”

Councillor Mistry suggested his amendment would be fairer than only allowing Councillors to hold multiple proxy votes. Councillors expressed significant concerns with the amendment, highlighting the risk of special interest groups “hijacking” general meetings, and the ease with which multiple proxies may be collected.

It was agreed that a higher degree of background information is required to discuss the issue further.
Lolas and Tran move to table the motion and proposed amendment to the December 4th meeting of Students’ Council. Carried.

X. DISCUSSION ON STUDENT RENTALS OF UNFINISHED BUILDINGS

Councillor Abramovitch expressed concerns about rental agencies leasing apartments to students in unfinished buildings, and suggested that Feds should post ads in the SLC specifying which buildings in Waterloo are currently incomplete. He further suggested that the VP Education should engage in student awareness campaigns.

Vice President Wiley confirmed that awareness campaigns are underway, and will be repeated in the Winter.

President Lolas specified that companies have been successfully told in past years not to talk about unfinished buildings. Abramovitch reiterated that activity in the SLC is implicitly endorsed by Feds, and thus Feds should control what is discussed.

XI. GENERAL MEETING PROXY DISCUSSION

Councillors discussed perceived issues with the collection of General Meeting proxies, specifically the fact that they must be submitted physically, and that the information collected on them is often personal.

President Lolas committed to looking into possible reforms and reporting back in December.

XII. UNIVERSITY BUILDING NAMING CRITERIA DISCUSSION

President Lolas outlined the University’s current criteria for the naming of buildings, and asked Councillors if they had any preference regarding how students ought to be involved in the process.

Councillors were predominantly of the opinion that the process by which campus buildings are named is of low priority for students.

XIII. OTHER BUSINESS – DESTRUCTION OF BALLOTS

Council heard a motion to destroy the ballots cast during the meeting.

Gerrits and Abramovitch. Carried.

ADJOURNMENT

Adjournment was moved at 15:49.

Lolas and Melanson. Carried.
Executive Report

SLC/PAC Expansion

Lighting maps have completed their first draft. This is where we zone each area of the building by the type of lighting required. So for example, all the lounge areas have a specific type of lighting mechanism that will auto adjust small regions of the lounge based on the amount of sunlight reaching that area (this is updated real-time, not on timers). This keeps the lounges well lighted, but saves on energy when the sun is out. The large amount of windows helps let a lot of natural light in as well.

We’ve also near finished our access control maps, and spent a good deal of time sorting out the interaction with Watcard. Conduit will be installed at basically every door, so bookable spaces will be entered with your Watcard, not a physical key.

A draft of the security cameras has also been completed. All common areas will have cameras.

We’ve begun planning the groundbreaking ceremony as well, to take place in the Winter term.

I’ll also go through in person the planned staging, if requested. This refers to what areas of PAC and SLC will be closed/open at what stage of the construction process.

UW Town Hall

I attended (and live-tweeted) the President’s Town Hall on the 22nd of November. Overall, students would be happy with the content of the messaging. There was a great deal of focus on students in the opening, and throughout the discussion. Feridun is quoted as saying “We will stop talking about innovation”, which was really about how UW wants to start being innovative without thinking about it. I encourage people to either watch it online, or scan through #UWth on twitter for a recap. The audience also spent a good deal of time on physical infrastructure on campus (accessibility, safety, general planning).

Senate and Other Meetings

The Senate met on the 21st. The Baccalaureate degree option was approved, we heard updates on campus space and campus wellness, and approved a controversial exception to the Nominating Committee for the new Dean of Engineering (added another faculty member; a small thing overall).

I joined VP Education Wiley in welcoming Her Honour the Honourable Elizabeth Dowdeswell, Lieutenant Governor of Ontario as she discussed with a group of students the Lieutenant Governor’s Visionaries Prize. I encourage you all to check this out, a great way to show off your innovative mind.
A few items I am working on:
1. CLAC has updated the Service Review procedure, will be brought to Council for January meeting
2. IAC has finalizes the Clubs Procedures and made recommendations, more procedure updates will be coming next term

Updates from the last two weeks:
- Feds on Tour visited BMH, Optom, Renison and AL bringing popcorn to students. Had some discussions on how to get involved with Feds, self-care and made a lot of students smile with popcorn!
- COPs EOT meeting was well attended – had great conversations regarding the Winter trip, as well as what different societies are hoping to do moving forward, and how Feds can help.
- Met with Student Success Office, brought forward questions about volunteer recognition, volunteer engagement and general student engagement. Will be working together to have a more thought out plan.
- The Lieutenant Governor of Ontario came to give a presentation on the Visionaries Prize, inviting students to write a short essay or brief video of one of 6 important topics.
- Met again with the Working Group on Sexual and Gender Diversity Matters, Undergrad Student Relations Committee and Student Services Advisory Committee
- Service Coordinators for next term have been hired! Two training sessions have happened, and there will be one more in January
- Coordinator Appreciation Dinner was last week and was a great opportunity to thank the service coordinators for all their hard work

Best of luck with your exams - please practice self-care while heading into this stressful time of the term! If you feel like you need to talk to someone, you can book an appointment with Mates or stop by their office hours. Feel free to connect with them at mates@uwaterloo.ca

If you have any comments, concerns, complaints or compliments about campus life (or anything about the university and Feds) feel free to reach out!

Night life Survey has closed, we have received 650+ responses and winner of the prize will be announced shortly. Update from Last Bomber to be given verbally.

International News
In house sandwiches have launched and we are continuing to add new sandwiches to the mix. The main items in the sandwiches have increased while prices continue to stay low. The plan is to have a Hot Grab n Go counter in INews early in the winter term where students can buy hot fresh meals for an affordable price while still having the convenience of grabbing an item and heading to class or home.

Campus Bubble/Wasabi:
Nothing new to report.

Feds Used Books:
We have seen a lot of used books come in from students and are gearing up for the busy January. Remind students to sell their books through FUB!

Current Projects/Initiatives

3.A. Feedback on commercial services
We have launched a new way for students to provide feedback on commercial services. This is through emailing feedback@feds.ca. This goes directly to myself so I can review each piece of feedback given. We will be transitioning all of our labels and ads to have this email on it to encourage students to provide feedback.

3.B. Part Time training
The Bomber has started a new training technique called server seminars where managers and experienced servers will have seminars to help other servers develop their skills to offer better service. Only a few have been done and I will be following them closely to review their effectiveness.

3.B. SLC
A waste audit was done in the SLC in conjunction w/ the university. All waste was counted and recorded and the data will be used to help drive sustainability changes within the building. We are hoping to receive the results in February or March from the university.

  - General in-person feedback:
    - People were generally neutral about proxy forms

General Meeting Attendance

  ![Bar chart showing feedback preferences for General Meeting attendance]

  - Of the three ‘other’ options
    - One said that they would like remote attendance
    - One said that they would like to have it on a weekend
    - One said that they would like an online livestream (which already occurs I believe)
Unfinished Housing:

- Online feedback form:
  - The one ‘other’ said that no action was necessary.

- General in-person feedback:
  - People were generally on board with banning unfinished buildings being advertised on campus
  - People were generally positive towards informing first years about the issue

University Building Names:

- A large amount of people didn’t care either way and felt it wasn’t an important issue
- Of the ones who did have an opinion, they mainly recommended naming buildings after alumni and suggested that the buildings not have names that are difficult to spell or are uncreative like ‘Engineering X’

Other:

OUSA:

- After sharing the OUSA page with students, some students expressed that they found this article seen at the top of its blog posts at the time (http://www.ousa.ca/blog_performance_based_mindsets) which suggested that studying more than 12 hours a week was strenuous to be somewhat ridiculous and felt that there was better things to be striving towards.
IAC Report Spring and Fall 2016

IAC meets weekly to approve club applications, changes to constitutions, and disciplinary procedures. The committee has also worked on developing an updated Clubs Procedure, with the addition of an affiliated clubs section. This section ensures that clubs who have external affiliations are not using student money to send directly to external groups. The $75/term allotment will not be given to these clubs as they have external support that clubs with no affiliations do not have. There has been a revision to the discipline section as well, clearly outlining what different consequences may be issued to clubs and for what reasons. The committee also worked on a clubs appeal form, where now if a decision is made by IAC and the Club doesn’t agree, they can fill out this form to formally appeal the decision. This form is available on the Feds website.

Approved club applications: about 40 since May – which does not translate to 40 new clubs, as some needed further action and the person starting the club did not follow up

International Students Policy Development Working Group

Background

The University of Waterloo has a large and ever growing population of international students. These students face barriers and issues that differ from those experienced by domestic students. Examples include health care, pathway to permanent residency, tuition costs and much more. It is important that international students have a voice and are represented by the Federation of Students.

Solution

The Vice President Education hopes to create a policy regarding student’s belief about the issues faced by international students. This would allow for formalized, high level recommendations regarding international student issues that would support consistent advocacy going forward.

The Vice President Education will ensure that this policy is reflective of the needs and interests of international students through the creation of an International Student Policy Development Working Group.

Mandate

The International Students Policy Development Working Group would be responsible for providing insight and feedback to the Vice President Education on issues facing international students for the purposes of collectively developing a Feds International Students Policy.

Membership

Chair- Vice President Education

Stakeholder Relations Officer

Government Affairs Commissioner

3 International students at large

2 Student Councillors (encouraged to be international students)

There must be representation from multiple faculties.

Timeline

This committee will meet on a weekly or biweekly basis for one hour meetings throughout the process of the policy development. Meetings will start at the beginning of January. This committee is expected to exist for less than one term.
Overview

The Academic Affairs Commission exists to promote the furtherance of a superior academic environment at the University of Waterloo; one which respects students’ rights and produces high quality graduates. In service of this goal, the Commission administers the Feds Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching Awards, represents the Vice President, Education on Policy 70 Tribunals in CECA and on various other committees, provides assistance to students facing the petitions and grievances process, maintains an Academic Rights Handbook, and engages in a variety of advocacy initiatives. In 2016-2017, the Commission’s advocacy goals are centred around three broad categories – student rights, teaching quality, and effective course delivery.

Priorities this Term

The Commission began the term with several goals, based on its 2016-2017 Action Plan and on the results of the Spring term:

- The recruitment of an Associate Commissioner to oversee the 2017 Feds Teaching Awards;
- Working with the University’s Course Evaluations Project Team to finalize its report to the community;
- Expanding the Commission’s work providing Policy 70 assistance to students;
- Furthering the Commission’s policy development goals as per the action plan, and lobbying the University to implement the goals of the new Feds Policy on Course Syllabi.

Progress

Student Rights:

- The Commissioner attended seven CECA Policy 70 Tribunals (since the July 24th report to Council), many of which handled multiple student cases, split evenly across petitions and grievances.
- With the assistance of Marketing, the Commission developed materials and participated in events intended to raise awareness of Feds’ capacity to help in Policy 70 cases.
- Multiple students sought and were provided assistance from Feds on Policy 70 matters, ending predominantly in success.
- The student rights handbook has been completed, and is ready for printing/further use.

Teaching Quality:

- The Commission attended multiple meetings of the University’s Course Evaluations Project Team (CEPT), whose report has now been distributed to the campus community for feedback.
• The Commission met with the Director of the Centre for Teaching Excellence, and is currently completing a report on campus approaches to teaching quality based on the results of that and other meetings, and associated research, which will be circulated to all relevant personnel.
• The Commission is beginning some early research into the relationship between Sessional Instructors and student experience, including a scheduled meeting with the University’s Policy 76 Review Committee.

Course Delivery:

• The Commission, in conjunction with the VP Education, received support-in-principle regarding the Feds Syllabi Policy from both the University Administration and the Faculty Association, and are currently working with the appropriate personnel to operationalize the development of a syllabus repository.
• Research on partial early grade return is nearly complete, and policy development is expected to be finalized by early in the new year.
• The Commission investigated issues with the LEARN and Quest systems, and made a series of subsequent recommendations to the VP Education. No further policy development is recommended at this time.

In addition to the above, the Commission also:

• Attended meetings of the Education Advisory Committee, Coop Students Council, and the Library Ambassadors Working Group;
• Provided advice, research, and support to the VP Education in the execution of her duties, particularly regarding Saturday midterms and CECA policy issues;
• Trained and continues to offer supervision and guidance to the Associate Commissioner, Feds Teaching Awards, and the Teaching Awards Committee.

Next Steps

In Winter 2017, the Commission will build on its progress from the Fall and further the goals in its annual action plan by:

• Finalizing policy proposals regarding partial early grade return and instructor/TA training;
• Working with university personnel to guarantee the effective implementation of the syllabus repository and lobbying for the adoption of the other recommendations of Feds Policy 42;
• Conducting further research into a potential policy on Sessionals;
• Assisting the Teaching Awards Committee in selecting the recipient of the award;
• Preparing an effective transition program to ensure a seamless continuation of existing policy goals.

Recommendations for the Future

The Commission’s work would benefit from the presence of a Deputy Commissioner hired exclusively to focus on policy issues relating to CECA and Work Integrated Learning on-campus. Greater direct engagement by all student societies would improve the breadth and quality of the Commission’s work. Additionally, office space would improve working hours, department morale, meeting availability, and would provide a place to store crucial documents used in transition.
Overview

The Government Affairs Commissioner is responsible for developing advocacy strategies and executing the VP Education’s external advocacy priorities (i.e. student housing, transit, domestic and international student tuition etc.). The execution of these priorities involves maintaining, developing relationships, and forming partnerships with university administrators, community organizations, Ontario Undergraduate Student Alliance (OUSA), local, regional, provincial, and federal staff & political representatives.

Priorities this Term

1) Sexual violence

- Co-authored OUSA’S sexual violence prevention and response policy paper.
- Lobbied the provincial government with OUSA at Lobby Conference.

2) Student Housing

- Delivered a presentation at an affordable housing forum hosted by the City of Waterloo and Town and Gown.
- Worked with the Town and Gown’s housing subcommittee to administer and promote the bi-annual supply and demand housing survey.
- City council wrote a letter on our behalf to the Minister of Housing and Municipal Affairs detailing issues around student housing in Waterloo. We are asking him for a review of the Residential Tenancies Act, where we’re looking to push amendments that protect the pre-occupancy rights of tenants, and give more authority and enforcement power to the Landlord Tenant Board (LTB).
- Worked closely with Catherine Fife to advocate for a review of the Residential Tenancies Act and potential amendments to the legislation. MPP Fife wrote a question on our behalf to the Minister of housing and Municipal Affairs.

3) International students

- Conducted extensive research on issues affecting international students.
- Areas identified that need to be addressed: Health care, tuition, visas and paths to permanent residents.
- VP Education developed terms of reference for a focus/working group to consult on findings and/or other issues.

4) Bike Share stations on campus

- Continued to Work with Feds’ bike centre service, Community Access Bike share CAB — an existing bike share program in the region — and the University’s to explore the possibilities of getting a station on campus.
Progress

Steps you have taken to achieve goals, stakeholders you met with, etc.

1) Sexual violence

-Finished the sexual violence response and prevention paper, with the other student authors (Including VP Education Sarah Wiley), in time for OUSA’s general meeting — which took place the first weekend of November. OUSA’s general assembly passed the paper and it was adopted as official OUSA policy.
-We lobbied the provincial government from November 28th to December 1st on revisions to the Tuition framework, Data collection and centralization, and sexual violence response and prevention. Our three recommendations we lobbied the provincial government on, include: ensuring all members of the university community have access to targeted sexual violence prevention training, asking the provincial government to create a sexual violence prevention unit to oversee the effectiveness and quality of prevention programs, data collection, and dissemination of that data.

2) Student Housing

-At this forum I looked at affordable housing through a student-housing lens by answering the following questions: How much are students paying for housing? What percentage of their budget is being spent on rent? How much student housing prices per bed has risen over the past decade despite the surplus of student housing bed in the market. You can find the presentation by clicking the following link: http://www.waterloo.ca/en/government/Repurposing-Forum.asp
-Currently promoting the housing survey on social media. Goal is to get 2,000 responses by December 8th when the survey closes.
-We’re working with Catherine Fife (i.e. collected signatures for her petition on the LTB) to fulfill the following recommendations:
  - Recommendation #1: The Ministry of Housing and Municipal Affairs in conjunction with the Ministry of the Attorney General should seek to immediately amend the Residential Tenancies Act to implement mechanisms that give the Landlord Tenant Board the authority to enforce the board’s order and track its outcomes.
  - Recommendation #2: The Ministry of the Attorney General and the Ministry of Housing and Municipal Affairs should look to streamline the legal process dealing with reimbursement and damage claims, in disputes between landlords and tenants, by limiting it to one legal claim and one institution decision.
  - Recommendation #3: The Ministry of Housing and Municipal Affairs should explore mechanisms that define and establish pre-occupancy rights, for both tenants and landlords, which could then be implemented in amendments to the Residential Tenancies Act.
-MPP Fife has also written a question for us on the order paper to further bring the issue up to the Minister and the provincial government.
-We’re exploring the possibility of creating and proposing a bylaw with city staff.

3) International students

-Research is basically done. Drafting of the policy is in progress with consultation with the working group to follow.
-Our goal is to table it to council at some point next term.
4) Bike Share stations on campus

- At the end of last term, we revealed the possibility of partnering up with CAB to bring a pilot program to campus. After meeting with Community Access Bike share (CAB), a representative from the sustainability office, and Feds’ service manager, we have determined not to pursue it further until the region and the city commits to a more sustainable model/program.

Next Steps

Besides the projects and priorities I will continue to work on next term I will also be prioritizing the following:

- International student tuition: Continue to advocate to the university for a predictable framework. Depending on response, we’ll also explore ways in which we can turn our advocacy efforts to the province on this issue.

- Housing survey: the housing sub-committee will look to identify gaps and better improve the Town and Gowns supply and demand survey.

- OUSA’s habitat’s publication: Looking to write about the increased advocacy role Town and Gown can take as a mediator between municipalities and the provincial government.

Recommendations for the Future

My one major recommendation is to explore the possibility of finding office space for commissioners. This will help us get our administrative work done efficiently, during work hours.

Commercial Services Policy

Whereas no entity on campus, Feds or otherwise, should have a commercial monopoly on providing services to students;

Whereas the Federation of students provides services to further enhance the student experience and to fill gaps in the student experience that are not filled by the university;

Whereas the Federation of Students recognizes the importance of student driven services and providing leadership opportunities for students is a key pillar of the Feds mandate;

Whereas it is not the intention of commercial services to profit at the expense of students and incidental profits, if any, are reinvested into students, student services and the overall undergraduate university experience;

BIRT commercial services will continue to ensure that the overwhelming majority of our employment opportunities are for students;

BIRT commercial services will ensure that students will have access to food and retail services twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days a week.

BIRT commercial services will continue to offer products at reasonable and affordable rates based on a service driven, not for profit, breakeven philosophy;

Background

After broad consultation with the previous and incumbent Elections and Referenda officers (ERO), the Research and Policy Officer (RPO) and various recent elections and referenda participants, the Policy and Procedures Committee (PPC) is recommending the following changes to the Elections and Referenda Procedure (see full draft below).

In addition to minor grammatical updates, the committee would like to draw your attention to our more significant proposals involving the powers and makeup of the ERO (Section 3.0), the allegations and appeals process (4.0), disqualification and other penalties (4.4.2), the interim period (7.2), and third party postings during the campaign period (8.1.6).

For the most part the proposed changes mirror the recommendations recently submitted by the ERO (see below). Of those recommendations that have not been included in this proposed update an explanation is provided below - of course council’s input on these omissions are more than welcome.

Omitted ERO recommendations

ERO Recommendation #1: Define protocol for incidents outside the outlined timeline.
And 2: Explicitly state that interim rules apply before All-Committees meeting

- It is the opinion of the RPO that Feds' oversight authority over nominees and/or referenda committees prior to the “all-candidates/committee” meeting would be viewed as illegitimate.

ERO Recommendation #12 Create mechanism through which the ERO, members of ERC, or ERAC can be removed should evidence of acted bias and corruption come forward

- Neither the RPO or PPC is opposed to this recommendation, however, considering council’s role in confirming these roles, council’s input on a removal mechanism is most welcome.
ERO Recommendation #13: Explicitly grant sign-in privileges to ERO for the Feds computers

- Neither the RPO or PPC is opposed to this recommendation, it was simply not codified in the procedures.

ERO Recommendation #14 (a)(b)(c)

- Neither the RPO or PPC is opposed to these recommendations, however, consultation with the IT and accounting departments is required.

ERO Recommendation # 15: Take a stance on covertly-obtained evidence

- Neither the RPO or PPC is opposed to these recommendations, however, council’s input would be welcome.

ERO Recommendation # 17: Mount the voting system entirely online

- Neither the RPO or PPC is opposed to these recommendations; Feds support staff has sought to implement this change - it is anticipated a fully-digital voting system will be in place for 2017 at which time PPC will seek to codify its implementation.

Summary of ERO Recommendations

1. Define protocol for incidents outside the outlined timeline.

As it currently reads, the Elections and Referenda procedure does not indicate whether its rules should be extended to incidents that predate the Interim period. In the capacity of ERO, I operated under the assumption that policing actions before and after the outlined referendum period was ill-advised and not in the spirit of Feds. However, it is my recommendation that rules are presented to govern the period between the referendum or election being called and the commencement of the Interim Period.
2. Explicitly state that interim rules apply before All-Committees meeting

I urge clarification of the statement indicating that candidates and committee-members are expected to adhere to the procedures in the days preceding the All-Committees’ or All-Candidates’ meeting as ignorance of policy is not justifiable grounds for violation.

3. Include weekends in the referendum timeline breakdown

I believe the procedure regarding weekends should be noted in the policy, as rules are not suspended over the weekend despite the exclusion of Saturdays and Sundays in the timeline denoting the various periods of the referendum. My recommendation is to state that the weekend belongs to the period of the Friday immediately preceding it or include the weekend days in the timeline breakdown.

4. Set two voting members out of four as quorum for ERC

Should ERC remain a 5-person committee (including the Chair), quorum should be set at 2/4 voting members. Quorum is understood to be 51% and over for Feds committees. This referendum had an irregularly high volume of allegations, requiring ERC to meet constantly. Gaining attendance by three people did not facilitate quick turnaround with regard to decisions, which in turn slowed down the appeals process and may have compromised the integrity of the referendum. As this is a 4-person committee, setting 2 people as quorum should be accepted as 2/4 is closer to 51% than ¾ and best facilitates the application of the policy in a timely fashion.

5. Maintain the undefined turnover period for ERC decisions

Should ERC remain a 5-person committee, I believe it is imperative that its undefined turnover period is protected. As outlined above, coordinating meetings with volunteers at a time that coincides with midterms and concentrated deadlines does not facilitate timely decisions and may compromise the integrity of the referendum.

6. Extend the defined turnover period for ERAC rulings

While this is best explained by the ERAC chair, administrative barriers occur for meetings of three. Both appeals and allegations need to be handled with attention and care and rushing this, especially in such a high-volume referendum, can compromise the integrity of the process.

7. Make explicit valid terms of appeals

Superfluous appeals were regularly submitted during the referendum, as committee members regarded the ERAC process as a ‘second chance’ at receiving a verdict that agreed with them. I recommend the policy outlines that appeals must ONLY be submitted if: 1) new information has come to light regarding the decision or 2) a procedural error has been made by the ERC, presented with evidence that supports this. Appeals simply reiterating rationale from the original allegation should not be processed through ERAC as this undermines the authority and sovereignty of the ERC and the procedure as a whole.

8. Explicitly grant ERO the power to dismiss superfluous allegations

Due to the high volume of recommendations made during this referendum, I recommend that ERO is explicitly granted the power to dismiss superfluous allegations. To ensure transparency and guard against corruption, I recommend that the ERO must divulge to the Research and Policy Officer or the ERAC Chair a list of dismissed recommendations and the rationale.

9. Explicitly grant ERAC chair the power to dismiss superfluous appeals

As the ERAC Chair checks the power of the ERO, symmetry is essential to the system. I believe that the ERAC Chair should have the power to dismiss appeals that simply reiterate rationale from the original allegation or are otherwise superfluous (for example, if an identical appeal has been made and ruled on). I would expect a similar mechanism for transparency as outlined in Recommendation 8.

10. Create allegations and appeals forms

Creating allegations and appeals forms would help guard against superfluous allegations and centralize the process. I recommend having one member handle all the forms for their committee to prevent duplicate submissions of allegations from the same committee. Using the form should clarify valid appeals as well (e.g. explicitly asking what new information has come to light, and if a procedural error has been made).

11a. Redefine parameters of ERC

I believe ERC should either be disbanded or be reduced to a maximum of two seats. Coordinating meetings with the ERC unnecessarily complicated and slowed the administration of justice during this referendum. Additionally, the hiring process of the ERC does not guard against committees attempting to ‘stack’ the committee in the favour.

11b. Strengthen hiring process of ERC and ERAC with greater transparency

Should ERC be disbanded or reduced in size, ERAC must be filled with an emphasis on transparency. ERAC will rise in importance as it checks the power of the ERO, which will be strengthened through this recommendation. ERAC should be screened for biases during the hiring process and explicitly warned against supporting either side of the referendum question.

12. Create mechanism through which the ERO, members of ERC, or ERAC can be removed should evidence of acted bias and corruption come forward
During the referendum, two seats on ERC were accused of operating under bias for different sides of the referendum question. Despite these allegations being provided without sufficient proof, there was no available mechanism to replace them should it have been necessary. I recommend that greater emphasis is placed on ensuring the neutrality of ERC, ERAC, and ERO members in the hiring process and a mechanism is creating through which they can be removed if it is revealed that their decisions have been influenced by personal motivations.

13. Explicitly grant sign-in privileges to ERO for the Feds computers

In order to hold ERC meetings with the use of a projector, the ERO requires a log-in to the Feds computer system. Out of the generosity of Feds staff I was able to use the projector and hold meetings for the most part, but this required staff to stay late.

14a. Create bank accounts for the referenda committees and stipulate that all finances must be routed through this bank account.

Budget transparency is an issue in the Feds referenda/election process, as its basis is an honour system. If Feds seriously wishes to work against committees exceeding the $500 budget, they should provide a bank account with the $500 and mandate that all transactions operate within this account only (as it is done with Feds Clubs). Alternatively--

14b. Remove the $500 limitation on budget.

The $500 limitation on budget is neither adhered to nor enforced effectively, so I recommend removing it. The demerit point system should not apply to the budget. I recommend continuing the $500 reimbursement for submitted receipts and encouraging a full budget to be submitted, but one cannot expect this to be the complete budget if the limit remains at $500. Alternatively--

14c. Stipulate that the ERO must have access to an ongoing budget spreadsheet denoting committee expenses throughout the campaign period.

This suggestion is not mutually exclusive to 14a or b. I recommend that the ERO has access to ongoing budgets as they are created during the referendum. This suggestion works best with 14b as honesty and transparency will be better ensured without threat of punishment for exceeding $500, but can be used in the 14a system as well.

15. Take a stance on covertly-obtained evidence

Covertly-recorded video was submitted repeatedly during this referendum. I do not wish to endorse this, but having this sort of evidence allowed for evidence to be submitted to support allegations. Covertly recording footage, without consent, of individuals is very difficult to police, but Feds has the opportunity to refuse to consider evidence of this nature to reduce its prevalence.
16. Repeal item requiring committees and candidates to bear responsibility for all online postings by third parties
   This item is nearly impossible to adhere to, as the Internet is vast and enforcing it would require an infringement upon freedom of speech. This item should be repealed as it is neither possible nor desirable.

17. Mount the voting system entirely online
   I recommend that physical ballots are not used in elections or referenda as they have consistently had a negligible effect on the outcome, and require the hiring of polling clerks, manning of polling booths, and a waste of manpower and resources that could be more effectively reallocated.

18. Enforce that only Federation of Students members may campaign on behalf of a referendum committee

19. Define ‘endorsement’ in the policy to differentiate it from ‘campaign’
   Endorsements are by no means prohibited by the Elections policy. Due to the combination of items stating that only students may join referendum committees and only referendum committee members may campaign, endorsements can easily be misinterpreted as acts of campaigning by non-committee members. The definition of campaign likely needs to be reworked to accommodate a separate definition for ‘endorsement’, as the current one (2.2.1) includes any activity designed or likely to influence the outcome of an elector’s vote—this would encompass an endorsement.

20. Compile a record of existing precedents made by past EROs
   Having a record of precedents made available to the ERO would assist in consistency between referenda and elections. Additionally, this record would help with institutional memory.

This will be the price that will be used for budget calculation but not for reimbursements.

5.5 The ERO shall have final say as to what will be considered a campaign expense

5.6 Candidates who are ranked first on at least seven per cent of the ballots cast, and all Referendum Boards, will receive a subsidy from the Federation of Students for one hundred per cent of their actual campaign expenses as per their spending limit.
